HERTFORD.

Admiralty Office, January 23, 1768.
HIS Majesty having signified His Pleasure to my Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, that the Lappells and Cuffs of the Military Uniform Frocks, appointed to be worn by the Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet, by their Lordships Order published in the London Gazette of the 18th of July last, be for the future White instead of Blue Cloth; and that the Waistcoats be plain white Cloth, with gilt Buttons of the Pattern now worn, without any Lace; Their Lordships do hereby give Notice thereof, and direct and require the Lieutenants of His Majesty's Fleet to conform strictly thereto.
Ph. Stephens.

St. James's, January 16, 1768.
Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That in the Night between the 11th and 12th Instant, His Majesty's Custom-House at Plymouth in the County of Devon, was feloniously broke and entered by Persons unknown, and several Chests broke open, in one of which was deposited upwards of Four Pounds, which was feloniously taken and carried away: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Offence, does hereby promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

H. S. CONWAY.
And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to the Person making such Discovery; to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.

Edw. Stanley, Secretary.
