

East-India House, June 24, 1768:

The Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, having since their Advertisement dated the 22d Instant, (in which they gave Notice of a General Court to be held the 6th of July next, pursuant to the Adjournment of the last General Court) received a Letter from Nine Proprietors, desiring a General Court to be held on the Subject of the Restitution due by the Treaty with Meer Jaffer Aly Khan, made in 1763; and the Charter prescribing that a General Court shall be held within Ten Days after Demand made by Nine Members duly qualified; The said Court of Directors do hereby give Notice, that a General Court of the said Company will be held at their House in Leadenhall-Street, on Friday the 1st of July next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to consider of some Alterations of the By-Laws; and on other special Affairs.

General Post Office, June 25, 1768.

His Majesty's Postmaster General, for the further Improvement of Correspondence, intending to establish a Post Six Times a Week, instead of Three as at present, between England and Ireland, both by the Way of Holbead and Port Patrick, the several Regulations for that Purpose will commence on Wednesday the 6th of July next.

From that Time also the Letters between several Parts of England and Ireland, which have hitherto been sent through London, will be circulated directly through the Bye and Cross Roads; by which Means the Correspondence between many Commercial Parts in both Kingdoms will be greatly accelerated.

Notwithstanding the frequent Regulations and Improvements made by the Postmaster General for the Benefit of Correspondence in divers Parts of Great-Britain and Ireland, it still appears, that vast Numbers of Letters are privately collected and delivered contrary to Law, to the great Prejudice of the Revenue: Public Notice is therefore hereby given, That all Carriers, Coachmen, Watermen, Dispersers of Country News-Papers, Higlers, and all others whatsoever, hereafter detected in the illegal collecting, conveying, or delivering of Letters or Packets, will be prosecuted with the utmost Severity.

The Penalty is Five Pounds for every several Offence, and One Hundred Pounds every Week such Practice is continued: One Moiety to the King, and the other Moiety to such Person or Persons who shall inform against the Offender or Offenders.

By Command of the Postmaster General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.
