Tue 17th

Tuesday the 17th Day of January, in the Ninth Year of the Reign of His Majesty King George the Third, 1769, between Thomas Brinkwell, Plaintiff, Thomas Bowen, Mary Skett, John Grimes, Walter Gibbons, John Wright, William Worthington, and Richard Skett, Defendants.

Forasmuch as this Court was this present Day informed by Mr. Rookes, being of Council with the Plaintiff, that the Plaintiff, on the 28th Day of June 1769, exhibited his Bill of Revivor into this Court against the Defendant Mary Skett, as by the Six Clerks Certificate now read appears, and took out Process of Subpœna, requiring her to appear to and answer the same; but the said Defendant hath not so done; that, upon Enquiry at the Defendant's usual Place of Abode, she is not to be found so as to be served with such Process, but is gone out of the Realm, or doth abscond, to avoid being served therewith, as by Affidavit now read appears: It is therefore ordered, that the said Defendant do appear to the Plaintiff's said Bill on or before the last Day of this Term.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to an Act of Parliament made in the Eighth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King George the Second, intitled, An Act for the Amendment of the Law relating to Actions on the Statute of Hue and Cry, that Christopher Hall, of Lancaster in the County of Lancaster, Butcher, on Monday the 16th Day of January instant, between the Hours of Two and Three in the Afternoon of the same Day, as he was travelling upon the King's Highway leading from Ingleton in the County of York to Aikrig in the said County, on a large Pasture or Common called Camm or Camb, in the Hundred or Wapentake of Ewcris and West Division of Staincliff, in the West Riding of the said County of York, was assaulted and robbed by three Men on Foot, all unknown to him; one of the said Men was dressed in a Blue Grey close Coat, and the other two were dressed in light Grey close Coats, commonly called Self-Greys, and all the said three Men had Scotch Plaids over their Shoulders; which said three Persons pulled him off a Mare whereon he was then riding, covered his Head and Face with a Great Coat which he then had on, and took from him the said Christopher Hall One Hundred and Thirty-six Pounds Eight Shillings and Six-Pence in Gold and Silver of his own proper Money, and then went on the said Highway towards Aikrig aforesaid.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the Creditors of William Lemon the Younger, late of Truro in the County of Cornwall, Esq; deceased, are forthwith to come before Thomas Lane, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Office in Carey-Street near Lincoln's Inn, London, and prove their several Demands, or in Default thereof they will be excluded All Benefit of the said Decree.

Pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, the English Inhabitants of Calcutta in the Province of Bengal in the East Indies, who were plundered and robbed of their Effects there by Suraja Dowla, in the Year 1756, or the Representatives of such of them as are dead, are forthwith to come in before John Eames, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn Chancery-Lane, London, and make out their respective Claims, on or before the 23d Day of February next, otherwise they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Decree.

To be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, before John Eames, Esq; one of the Masters of the said Court, on Wednesday the 1st of March next, at his Chambers in Symond's Inn Chancery-Lane, London, between Five and Six in the Afternoon, The Estate of Benjamin Trappett, late of Norwich, Gent. deceased, in Rockland and Stowbedon in the County of Norfolk, in the Occupation of John Hammond, on Lease for Seven Years, which expires at Michaelmas next; consisting of a good Farm-House, Barn, Stable, and other Outhouses, all in good Repair, and about 90 Acres of Arable, Meadow, and Pasture Land, at the yearly Rent of 58l. Particulars whereof may be had at the said Master's Chambers.

To be sold at Public Sale, at the House of John Pringle, the Sign of the Grapes, in Carlisle, on Saturday the 1st Day of April next, One Estate called Brackenhowe, in the Parish of Dalsten in the County of Cumberland; one other Estate lying at Barrockside, in the Parish of Heskett in the Forest in the said County; and sundry Parcels of Land lying at Beckell Moor, in the Parish of St. Cuthbert's, near Carlisle in the said County, late the Property of John Holme, late of the City of Carlisle, a Bankrupt. The Sale to begin at Three o'Clock in the Afternoon.

Plymouth Dock, January 10, 1769.

THE Trustees of the Will of the late Harenden Jackson, Joiner, of the Parish of Stoke Damarel in the County of Devon, give Notice, that those Persons who have any lawful Demands on the Effects of the said Harenden Jackson may apply to Mr. William Broad, Rope-maker, or Mr. William Spry, Upholder, of the said Parish of Stoke Damarel, the Trustees, within Two Months from the Date hereof, or they will not be entitled.
