St. Peterbourg, August 15.

LORD and Lady Effingham and Mr. Howard were presented on Sunday to the Emperess, and received with particular Distinction.

Rome, August 19. The Pope has confirmed the Nomination of the Emperess Queen to the Bishoprick of Ruremonie in the Austrian Flanders, in the Person of a Jesuit Rector of the Theresian College in Vienna.

On the 10th Instant, in the Evening, Cardinal de Solis, Archbishop of Seville, conformable to the Custom of the Cardinals who receive the Hat in Rome, made a most magnificent and expensive Façade to his House, which was illuminated; and various Bands of Musick were disposed in the Balconies, as well as in many Parts within the House, in which the whole Nobility was received. It is said to be the most expensive Decoration of the kind that has been made there.

The Pope, pursuant to the Custom of his Predecessors on their Election, has determined to grant a Jubilee in all Catholick Churches in Christendom, which is to take Place on Sunday the 17th of September.

On the 13th, being the Anniversary of the Birth of the Queen of Naples, Cardinal Orsini was complimented by the Gentlemen of the Cardinals, by the Foreign Ministers, and the Nobility, who are either Subjects, or hold Fiefs of the Two Sicilies.

Stockholm, August 22. The Duke de la Rochefoucault, who has been here some Time, was last Week admitted a Member of the Swedish Academy of Sciences.

Stockholm, August 25. Their Swedish Majesties and the Royal Family came to Town this Week for two Days, and returned to Dronningholm last Wednesday Evening, after the Comedy was ended.

Baron Duben, the Swedish Minister at Warfaw, is recalled.

Lisbon, August 25. On the 19th Instant His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Montreal, Phillips Colby, Esq; Commander, arrived here from Lisbon, and this Day sailed for Mahon.

Florence, August 26. On the 16th Instant the Great Duke and Dutchess returned to this Capital from Pisa, where, on the 14th in the Evening, they accepted of a Ball, which General Schuoulow gave them at the Baths.

On the 18th their Royal Highnesses assisted at the Funeral Obsequies of the late Emperor, which are every Year performed in the Chapel of the Palace; and on the 22d the Great Duke, attended only by Count Thurn, made an Excursion to Pistoia, to view the new Road, which leads from that Province into the State of the Duke of Modena; from whence he returned to this Place on the 23d in the Evening.

Yesterday the Great Dutchess's Name-day was celebrated here with great Solemnity. There was Gala, and a general Baciamano; after which their Royal Highnesses dined in Publick, and in the Evening there was a great Drawing Room at Court.

St. James's, September 12, 1769.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, That in the Night between the 19th and 20th Days of August last, some malicious and evil-disposed Persons entered into the Park of the Right Honorable Lord Vernon, at Sudbury in the County of Derby, and did then and there unlawfully kill several Fallow-Deer, and carry away the same; and also the same Night broke down a Bridge standing over a River in the said Park, and did considerable other Damage therein: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the said Offenders, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

WEYMOUTH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Right Honorable Lord Vernon doth hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY GUINEAS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery, as aforesaid; and also a Reward of TEN GUINEAS for every other Person, after the first, who shall be apprehended and convicted thereof; and any Accomplice, making such Discovery as aforesaid, shall be entitled to the same Reward.

Whitehall, September 8, 1769.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That the Hamlet of Puckeridge in the County of Hertford has been repeatedly, viz. on the 23d, 25th, and 30th of last Month, set on Fire by wicked and ill-designing Persons: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned therein, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any of them, (except the Persons who actually set Fire to the said Hamlet) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any one of them, (except as before excepted) who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid; the said Reward to be paid by the Right Honorable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

ROCHFORD.
