St. James's, September 20.

A Chapter of the most Noble Order of the Garter having been summoned to meet this Day, the Knights Companions, with the Officers of the Order hereafter mentioned, all in their Mantles, attended the Sovereign; and being called over by Garter King of Arms, a Procession was made to the Great Council Chamber, in the following Order:

Earl of Hertford.—Duke of Northumberland.

Duke of Montagu.

Duke of Newcastle.

Duke of Bedford.

Duke of Kingston.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester.

Black Rod.—Garter.

The Chancellor.

The SOVEREIGN.

The Sovereign and Knights Companions being seated, the Chancellor signified His Majesty's Pleasure for filling up the vacant Stall; and as by the Statutes none but a Knight can be elected, his Grace the Duke of Grafton was conducted by Garter and Black Rod to the Sovereign, and knighted with the Sword of State.

The Chapter then proceeding to the Election, Augustus-Henry-Fitzroy Duke of Grafton was declared duly elected; whereupon being received at the Door by the two junior Knights Companions, and preceded by Garter bearing the Ensigns on a Cushion, and Black Rod, he was conducted to the Sovereign, and invested with the Garter, Ribbon, and George, by the two senior Knights, the Chancellor pronouncing the usual Admonitions; and his Grace having kissed His Majesty's Hand, and severally saluted the Knights Companions present, withdrew.

Garter then calling over the Knights, a Procession was made back to the King's Closet, in the same Order it came from thence.

St. James's, September 23.

Yesterday being the Anniversary of Their Majesties Coronation, there was a numerous and splendid Appearance at Court of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction. At Noon the Guns in the Park and at the Tower were fired; and at Night there were Bonfires, Illuminations, Ringing of Bells, and all publick Demonstrations of Joy.
