Rome, February 3.

BARON St. Odile has changed his Abode, from the Palace of Villa Medici to the Great Duke's Palace in Campo Marzo, to make room for Baron Vanswieten, jun. who is expected here in Quality of Minister Plenipotentiary from the Court of Vienna. Many of the Statues in the Villa Medici, agreeably to the Great Duke of Tuscany's Orders, particularly the Niobe, the little Apollo, and the Venus, have been cased up, and transported to the Border of the Tiber, to be embarked for Leghorn.

Cardinal de Solis is expected here from Spain, to reside at this Court, with the Character of his Catholick Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary and Protector of his Kingdoms.

The Pope, according to the Custom of his Predecessors, has granted a Jubilee for three Weeks, to begin from the 18th of March.

Florence, March 10. On the 4th Instant the Great Duke, attended by the Counts of Rosenberg and Thurns, set out for the Eastward Parts of the Sea-Coast called Cecina, in which Excursion he proposes to be absent from this Capital about ten Days.

On the 9th a Courier arrived here from Naples, with Dispatches for the Great Duke.

Whitehall, March 27, 1770.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that in the Night between the 11th and 12th Instant, His Majesty's Custom-House at Minehead in the County of Somerset was feloniously broke open, and entered, by Persons unknown; and the King's Chest, with several Drawers, were also broke open, wherein was deposited upwards of Ninety Pounds, which was feloniously taken and carried away: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Offence, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROCHFORD.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to the Person making such Discovery; to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.

Edw. Stanley, Secretary.

St. James's, March 19, 1770.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, That, by an Act of Parliament, made in the Seventh Year of His present Majesty's Reign, for dividing of the Haute Huntre, Eight Hundred, or Holland Fen, and certain other commonable Places adjoining thereto, in the Parts of Holland in the County of Lincoln, Commissioners were empowered to divide the said Fen amongst the several Townships and Places which had Right of Common therein, who did divide the same accordingly; but that divers malicious and evil-minded Persons, in order to obstruct and hinder the Execution of the said Act, have in the Night-time, at several different Times, pulled down and destroyed the greatest Part of the Fences, which were set up and erected by the said Commissioners, shot into several Dwelling-Houses, burnt a House and several Stacks of Hay and Corn, shot a Horse and several Beasts, wounded a great Number of Horses, Beasts, and Sheep, written several threatening and incendiary Letters to many Persons whom they think Well-wishers to the Division of the said Fen, and have committed several other felonious and outrageous Acts: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in such Felonies, and other atrocious and daring Outrages and Offences, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof; provided that no Person or Persons shall be entitled to the above Pardon for any Offences of which they shall have been guilty, that are of a higher Nature than Those of which he, she, or they shall so give Information.

WEYMOU TH.

And, as a farther Encouragement, Edward Draper, of Boston in the said County of Lincoln, Gent. Clerk to the said Commissioners, doth hereby promise the following Rewards to any Person or Persons, who shall, within Six Months from the Date hereof, make such Discovery as aforesaid; to be paid by him on Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, according to the respective Offences of which they shall be convicted; that is to say,

For the Discovery of one or more Person or Persons, who shall have been guilty of any of the above Offences, which are Capital, the Sum of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS.

For the Discovery of any one or more Person or Persons, who shall have been guilty of any of the above Offences, which are Felonious and not Capital, the Sum of FIFTY POUNDS.

For the Discovery of any Person or Persons, who shall have been guilty of any of the above Offences which are not Felonious, the Sum of TWENTY POUNDS.

N. B. The above Rewards are offered in Lien of all Rewards formerly promised by the said Edward Draper, or any other Person or Persons, for the Discovery of the Perpetrators of the above Crimes or Offences, or any of them.

London, March 24, 1770.

Whereas the Partnership between James Stamp and John Baker, of Ludgate Street, London, Goldsmiths, was this Day by mutual Consent dissolved: All Persons who have any Claims or Demands on the said Partnership Account are desired immediately to send in the same to be discharged; and all Persons indebted to the said Estate are requested forthwith to pay the same.

James Stamp.
John Baker.
