Chest Room at Chatham, July 20, 1770.

IT appearing this Day at the General Payment of Pensioners belonging to the Chest at Chatham, that Charles Day, Mariner, one of the Pensioners of the said Chest, at Five Pounds a Year, for a Scrotal Rupture on his Right Side, proceeding from a Hurt received on Board His Majesty's Ship Guarland, (born at Portsmouth, middle-sized, dark Complexion) on the 14th Day of January last made an Assignment of his three Years Pension ending Lady-day 1760, being for the Years 1766, 1767, and 1768. And on the 24th Day of April then following, made another Assignment of the same three Years Pension, wilfully and knowingly to defraud such last Assignee of his Purchase-Money; Notice therefore is hereby given, for Prevention of such Frauds, and according to the Rules and Practice of the Chest in such Cases, that the said Charles Day is discontinued from being any longer a Pensioner to the said Chest, and absolutely discharged therefrom; and that no further Regard is to be paid to his Certificate of being a Pensioner thereto.

By Order of the Governors,
John Hick, Attorney and Solicitor to the said Chest.
