From Tuesday October 16, to Saturday October 20, 1770.

AT the Court at St. James's the 19th Day of October, 1770.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty hath received Information, that the Plague doth at this Time rage with great Violence at Constantinople, and other Parts of the Levant; His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth thereupon judge it probable the Infection may be brought into this Kingdom by Ships and Vessels coming from the several Ports in the Mediterranean; and doth therefore, with the Advice aforesaid, order, as it is hereby ordered, that the Quarantine at present subsisting upon all Ships and Vessels coming from the Mediterranean, (except from the Ports of Spain, Minorca, and Gibraltar) or from West Barbary on the Atlantic Ocean, be extended to all Ships and Vessels whatsoever coming from or through the Mediterranean: And His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, doth hereby further order, require, and command, that all Ships and Vessels whatsoever, coming from or through the Mediterranean, and all Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes, on board the same, that are already arrived, or shall hereafter arrive in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days; and do likewise strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations now in Force, and required to be observed by Ships and Vessels subject to Quarantine. — And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief, for the Time being, of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th Day of October, 1770.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 5th of this Instant, to direct, that all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes then arrived, or that should hereafter arrive, in any Port of this Kingdom, or the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, from Dantzick or any other Port or Place in Royal and Ducal Prussia or Pomerania, should make their Quarantine for Forty Days, to commence and be computed from the Day each Ship or Vessel should come to Anchor in the Place appointed for performing Quarantine, and not before, and should strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations thereby required to be observed: — His Majesty, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, doth judge it probable, that the Infection now raging in divers Places in Poland may be brought into this Kingdom from Riga in Livonia, to which Place

[ Price Three-Pence. ]

Goods are carried from the same Districts from which they are carried to Royal and Ducal Prussia; and doth hereby, with the Advice aforesaid, order, that the Quarantine at present subsisting upon all Ships and Vessels coming from Dantzick, or any other Port or Place in Royal and Ducal Prussia or Pomerania, be extended to all Ships, Vessels, Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes coming from any of the Ports or Places in Samogitia, Courland, or Livonia: — And His Majesty, with the Advice aforesaid, doth hereby further order, require, and command, that all Ships and Vessels whatsoever coming from Samogitia, Courland, or Livonia, and all Persons, Goods, and Merchandizes on Board the same, that are already arrived, or shall hereafter arrive, in any of the Ports of this Kingdom, or of the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, do make their Quarantine for Forty Days, and do likewise strictly conform themselves, in all Respects, to the Rules and Regulations now in Force, and required to be observed by Ships and Vessels subject to Quarantine. —

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Lieutenant-General and the Rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, His Majesty's Secretary at War, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th Day of October, 1770.

P R E S E N T,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been received that the Plague doth at this Time rage with great Violence at Constantinople and other Parts of the Levant, and in some Parts of Poland — And whereas Rags and Cotton-Wool are Goods more especially liable to retain Infection, and may be brought from the said Places so infected into other Countries, and from thence imported into His Majesty's Dominions in Ships not obliged to perform Quarantine; — His Majesty doth thereupon, by and with the Advice of His Privy Council, hereby order, that all Rags or Cotton-Wool, which are or shall be imported into the Rivers of Thames or Medway, in any Ship or Vessel not obliged to perform Quarantine, be immediately put on board an Hoy or other proper Vessel, and sent to Standgate Creek, to be there unpacked, opened, and aired on board the Lazaret appointed for that Purpose, unless His Majesty shall think fit, by His Order in Council, to direct otherwise; and shall there remain for the Space of a Fortnight; and in Case any Rags or Cotton-Wool are or shall be imported in any Ship or Vessel not obliged to perform Quarantine, into any other Port of Great Britain, or the Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, or Man, that such Ships having such Rags or Cotton-Wool on board, shall not be permitted to land any Part of their Cargoes, until such Rags or Cotton-Wool shall have been taken out of the said Ships, and put on board some proper Vessel or Vessels to be provided.

provided for that Purpose, in order to be unpacked, opened, and aired upon the Decks of the said Vessel or Vessels, in the same Manner as is above directed, in Cases of Ships and Vessels arriving in the Rivers of Thames and Medway. And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Governors or Commanders in Chief for the Time being of the said respective Isles of Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and Man, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 19th Day of October, 1770,

The KING's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS Information has been received that the Contagious Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle rages in the Regions of the Kings of Denmark and Sweden, the Dutchies of Holstein, Mecklenburgh, and Cleves, in the Neighbourhood of Hamburg, the Frontiers of the United Provinces, the United Provinces, and Flanders, and upon the Coast of France, and that certain Commodities packed in Hay and Straw are frequently brought into these Kingdoms from thence; His Majesty doth thereupon, with the Advice of His Privy Council, find it necessary to order, and doth hereby accordingly order and command, that all Hay or Straw found in any Baskets, Packets or Bales, which may be imported into any of the Ports of Great Britain or Ireland, or any of the Islands and Dominions thereto belonging, from Dunkirk, or any other Part of Flanders, or from the Dominions of the Kings of Denmark and Sweden, the Dutchies of Holstein, Mecklenburgh, and Cleves, the Neighbourhood of Hamburg, the Frontiers of the United Provinces, or the United Provinces, or from any Ports or other Places on the Coast of France, within the Districts of Picardie, Normandie, and Bretagne, be directly burned or destroyed: And His Majesty doth further, with the Advice of His Privy Council, strictly charge and command all Magistrates, Constables, and Officers of the Customs and Excise, to stop, seize and destroy, all Hay and Straw, found in Packages as aforesaid, using and exercising in that Behalf, the like Authority as any Officer or Officers have, by any Law now in being, in Cases of Prohibited and Uncustomed Goods.—And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Lord Lieutenant of His Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, are to give the necessary Directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Steph. Cottrell.

Stockholm, September 28. The Queen of Sweden is thoroughly recovered of her Indisposition, and appeared last Monday for the first Time in Publick again.

Prince Henry of Prussia left this Place last Wednesday Morning, and embarked for Abo in Finland; and the Prince Royal, as well as Prince Frederick, conducted His Royal Highness as far as Ostana, a Country seat belonging to Count Sparre, Grand Governor of Stockholm.

The Prussian Minister here had his Audience of Leave of their Swedish Majesties last Tuesday, and proposes to set out next Sunday from hence for Berlin.

Florence, September 29. A few Days ago arrived here from Copenhagen, Baron Gleichen, Envoy from the King of Denmark to the Court of Naples, on his Journey thither to relieve M. Osten, who is to go to the Hague in the same Quality.

Berlin, October 6. The Electress Dowager of Saxony remained at Potsdam till Yesterday, when she set out for Dresden. During her Stay, her Serene Highness was entertained with Operas, Plays, Concerts, &c.

Navy-Office, October 16, 1770.

The Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed Money for paying Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of January to the 30th of June 1770, according to His Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf; These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy in Broad-Street, on Monday and Tuesday the 22d and 23d Instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Morning, viz. To Captains and their Attorneys, and other Officers appearing themselves, on the Monday; and to Attorneys of Lieutenants, Masters and Surgeons, on the Tuesday, (after which the Lists will be recalled once a Month) that all Persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable unto them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any Publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid their Half-Pay; but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to His present Majesty; and in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

Navy-Office, October 16, 1770.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, That all Bills registered on the Course of the Navy for the Months of October, November, and December, 1769, are ordered to be paid in Money; that such Persons, as are possessed thereof, may bring them to this Office to be assigned on the Treasurer of the Navy for Payment.

Victualling-Office, October 16, 1770.

The Commissioners for Victualling His Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that there is Money in the Hands of the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy to pay Interest of the Victualling in the Course of the Months of October, November, and December, 1769, in order that the Persons possessed of the said Bills may bring them to this Office to be assigned for Payment.

General Post-Office, Aug. 19, 1770.

This Morning, about Four o'Clock, the Post-Boy, carrying the Chester Mail from this Office, was attacked and robbed near the Six Mile Stone on Finckley Common, by a single Highwayman, who took out of the said Mail two Bags of Letters, ticketed Colspoil and Irish.

The Person, who committed this Robbery, is described to be rather a thin Man, about five Feet six Inches high, dressed in a dark brown close-bodied Coat, and well mounted on a very light Bay Gelding, about Fifteen Hands high, with a cut Tail.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed the said Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward by Act of Parliament for apprehending Highwaymen: Or if any Person, whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery whereby the Person who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Person who committed this Robbery, be intitled to the said Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-master General, Anth. Todd, Secretary.

General Post-Office, July 20, 1770.

The Chester Mail which was sent from this Office, this Morning about Two o'Clock, was soon afterwards stolen out of the Mail Cart, between Newington and Clapham, by some Person or Persons unknown, who cut the Straps which fastened the Mail to the Cart.

The said Mail contained the following Bags of Letters, viz.

Chichester, Petworth, Arundel, Midhurst, Havant, Godalmin, Haslemere, Steyning, Guildford, Shoreham, Kingston, Claremont, Cebham, Ripley, Petersfield, and Portsmouth.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person or Persons who stole the said Mail, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds: Or, if any Person or Persons, whether an Accomplice or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery whereby the Offender or Offenders may be apprehended and brought to Justice; such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of the Person or Persons who stole the said Mail, be intitled to the said Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and will also receive His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Postmaster General, Anth. Todd, Secretary.

October 10, 1770.
