Stockholm, January 8.

THE Royal Family returned to Town Yesterday, from Ulrickdahl, and assisted at the Comedy in the Evening.

Rotterdam, January 25. The present Thaw, high Wind, and Rise of the Water, encreases the Fears for the Banks of the Rivers Leck and Waai, as in both Rivers the Ice has accumulated itself so much as to obstruct their Course; and gives Apprehensions of very considerable Inundations.

St. James's, January 23.

This Day the Honourable Richard Savage Nassau had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand on being appointed one of the Principal Clerks of His Majesty's Board of Green Cloth.

N. B. It is found necessary to explain what is meant by the Average Price in the above Abstract, as many People will not consider there are Degrees of Quality in Corn, and that the Average Price is that which the several Qualities sell for, when collected together, the Quantities of each also considered; and many Persons will not confine their Ideas to the Winchester Bushel only. Besides, on perusing the Abstract, it should be always remembered, that the Price published is not that of the present Week, but that of three Weeks ago, because the Returns of the Kingdom cannot be collected in less Time.

War-Office, January 26.

I Am commanded by the King to give Notice to all Out-Pensioners belonging to Chelsea Hospital, who were directed, by Advertisement, dated War-Office, December 28th last, to appear personally on the first Day of March next, or some one of the Days between that Day and the fifteenth of the same Month, at certain Places mentioned in the said Advertisement, that His Majesty is pleased to dispense with their Attendance until further Order.
