And to Ten Private Bills.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

AS the State of Public Business no longer requires your Attendance, I think it right, at this Season of the Year, to put an End to the present Session of Parliament.

The Satisfaction I have obtained from his Catholic Majesty, for the Injury I had received, together with the Proofs which the Courts of France and Spain have given Me, by laying aside their Armaments, of their sincere Disposition to preserve the general Tranquillity of Europe, have enabled Me to reduce My Forces by Sea and Land. The Zeal with which you have exerted yourselves, upon the Apprehension of a Rupture with Spain, must convince the World of your affectionate Attachment to Me, and of your constant Regard for the true Interests of your Country. On that Support I shall always rely for the Defence of My Honour, and for the Security of the Rights of My People.

With regard to the Troubles which still agitate some Parts of the Continent, My Endeavours have never been wanting to bring them to an End; and in those Endeavours, you may be assured, I shall persevere.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

It was with real Concern that I found Myself called upon, by the Situation of Public Affairs, to ask of My faithful Commons more than ordinary Supplies for the Service of the current Year; and I cannot sufficiently thank you for the Unanimity, Cheerfulness, and Public Spirit, with which they have been granted.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

While We acknowledge the Goodness of Divine Providence in preserving Us from those Calamities with which some Parts of Europe have been afflicted, let Me exhort you to employ your best Endeavours, in your several Stations and Countries, to render the national Happiness compleat, by discouraging and suppressing all groundless Suspicions and domestic Disturbances. I have no other Object, and I can have no other Interest, than to reign in the Hearts of a free and happy People: And it is My earnest Wish, that My Subjects may not be prevented, by any Mistakes or Animositities amongst themselves, from enjoying, in the fullest Extent, the Blessings of a mild and legal Government. The Support of Our excellent Constitution is Our common Duty and Interest: By that Standard I would with My People to try all Public Principles and Professions; and to look upon those as their most dangerous Enemies, who, under any Pretence whatsoever, would persuade them to violate those Laws, and undermine that Authority, which the Constitution has provided for the Purpose of preserving the general Liberty and Happiness.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majesty's Command, said;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, that this Parliament be prorogued to Tuesday the 23d Day of July next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tuesday the 23d Day of July next.
