From Saturday July 20, to Tuesday July 23, 1771.

St. James's, July 23.

THEIR Majesties, and their Royal Highnesses the Prince of Wales, the Bishop of Osnabrugh, Prince William, and the Princess Royal, propose to set out from Richmond To-morrow in the Afternoon, for Windsor, in order to be present at the Installation on Thursday next.

Cadiz, June 15. Several Swedish Ships are taken into his Catholick Majesty's Service, which are to be employed as Transports to bring Home some of the Regiments from the West Indies.

Several Licences are come down for Ships to go in the Flota; but the whole Number is not yet granted.

Madrid, July 4. The Harvest of every Kind of Grain promises this Year to be one of the finest and most plentiful that has been known in this Country for a long Time. The Silk Worms both in Valencia and Murcia have entirely failed. Last Year they had such an Abundance of Silk, as to admit of Exportation; but this Year they have barely sufficient for Home Consumption.

Turin, July 6. Their Royal Highnesses the Duke and Dutchess of Savoy left this Place on Thursday last, and are gone to Moncalier for a Month, where the Duke proposes to drink the Mineral Waters near that Place.

The Comte de Khevenhuller, his Imperial Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary here, is preparing to leave this Place, upon his being appointed Grand Maître to the Archduke, who is to reside at Milan, and his Lady Grand Maitresse to the Archdutchess.

[Price Three-Pence.]

Navy-Office, July 18, 1771.

The Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy give Notice, that all Bills registered on the Course of the Navy for the Months of July, August, September, and October, 1770, are ordered to be paid in Money; that such Persons as are possessed thereof may bring them to this Office, to be assigned on the Treasurer of the Navy for Payment.

Assurance-Office, Serjeant's Inn,

July 17, 1771.

A General Quarterly Court of the Corporation of the Amicable Society for a Perpetual Assurance-Office, will be held at their House in Serjeant's Inn, Fleet-Street, on Thursday the 8th Day of August next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, for the Choice of Auditor's for the Year ensuing.

Joseph Baldwin, Register.

St. James's, July 6, 1771.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, that a Commission of Bankrupt having been awarded and issued against John Lamb, of King's Norton in the County of Worcester, Malster, he was duly declared a Bankrupt thereon, and that the Commissioners in the said Commission named, issued their proper Warrant for taking Possession of the Effects of the said Bankrupt, directed to John Salmon, the Messenger therein named, who, in proceeding to execute the same, was violently assaulted and ill-treated, and forcibly repulsed from the said Bankrupt's House, by a great Number of armed Persons assembled therein, who threatened to murder the said Messenger if he persisted in his Duty; and also that several Persons have, at different Times since, been seen lurking about the House of Mr. John Freeman, of King's Norton aforesaid, Attorney at Law, the Clerk to the said Commission, carrying Fire-Arms and other offensive Weapons, and have threatened to shoot or otherwise kill the said Mr. Freeman, if he did not withdraw such Commission of Bankrupt; and that in the Night of the 13th Day of June last, a threatening Letter was
