St. James's, August 16, 1771.

Whereas it hath been humbly represented to the King, by Information upon Oath, that on the 10th Day of this Instant Month of August, about Eight of the Clock in the Morning, in Great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk, a written Letter, sealed, directed to Mrs.

Le Grys at Browston, dated the 27th Day of July last, was found in the Seat of a Sheriff-Court, the Property of the said Mrs. Le Grys; which Letter contained a Threat to murder John Ramey, of Great Yarmouth aforesaid, Esq; one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Norfolk, and His Majesty's Receiver-General of the said County, as he shall pass from his House in Great Yarmouth to his House in Ormsby, and a Declaration that the Authors of the said Letter have laid Wait on the first Wednesday in June last, on the Road to Ormsby, to take away his Life; and that, on the 7th Day of June last, they laid in a Straw House of the said John Ramey in Ormsby, and had then a Design to jet the same on Fire; and that they did attempt to rob the House of the said Mrs. Le Grys, in Browston in Suffolk, and now threaten to break open and rob the same; and threaten to lay Wait for Edward Holden, of Barsham in the County of Suffolk, Clerk, one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County of Suffolk: And whereas it hath been also represented to the King, that on or about the Month of September 1769, the said Mrs. Le Grys's Dwelling-House in Browston was attacked in the Night, but the Family being alarmed, the Offenders made off; and that on the 5th Day of November last, about Six o'Clock in the Afternoon, the new-built Tower or Summer-House, in the Garden or Pleasure-Ground of the said Mrs. Le Grys in Browston, was wilfully set on Fire, and with the Furniture therein entirely consumed: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in writing and leaving the said Letter, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SUFFOLK.

And, as a farther Encouragement, we do promise to pay the Sum of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS, viz. each of us One Hundred Pounds, and for Mrs. Le Grys One Hundred Pounds, to the Person who shall make such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid on the Conviction of the Offenders, or of any one of them.

John Ramey.
