From Tuesday September 10, to Saturday September 14, 1771.

An Account of the Form and Procession, on delivering His Majesty's Letter to Nabob Waulanau, Subah of the Carnatic; and the Ceremonial observed on investing Sir John Lindsay with the Ensigns of the most Honourable and Military Order of the Bath, at the Durbar, near Madras, the 11th of March, 1771.

EARLY in the Morning all the Officers of His Majesty's Ships Stag and Dolphin that could be spared from Duty, and several of the Gentlemen of the Settlement, both Civil and Military, assembled at Sir John Lindsay's House, in Fort St. George. About Eight o'Clock, four Khans of the Presence waited on him, to compliment him, in his Highness's Name, and to conduct him to the Durbar. At the same Time, a Company of the Nabob's Sepoys were sent to serve as a Guard, and to lead the Way.

The Procession then began:

The Secretary, bearing His Majesty's Letter in a Bag of rich Gold Brocade, upon a Velvet Cushion richly laced; Sir John Lindsay; the Officers of His Majesty's Navy, and the Gentlemen of the Settlement, both Civil and Military, in Palankeens, and other Carriages, with as much Regularity as Circumstances would admit. Beyond the Gates of the Fort the Procession was met by several of the Nabob's State Elephants richly clothed and dressed; some of them bearing Standards, some Kettle-drums, and others a Variety of Performers on several Musical Instruments. On meeting the Procession; they made a Wheel; and, marching in Front, played all the Way, after the Manner of the Country.

The whole Road, from the Governor's Gardens to the Nabob's House, which is about half a Mile, was lined on both Sides with Sepoys, who received the Procession with presented Arms, the Drums beating a March, the Officers saluting, and the Colours dropping, as His Majesty's Minister passed. He was met on the Road by Khariooden Cawn, the Nabob's Son-in-law; Modar al Mulck received him at the Gate, and conducted him to the Durbar Stairs, where the Nabob waited for him; and, embracing him, led him to the Durbar.

His Majesty's Letter was then delivered, with Expressions suitable to the Occasion. The Nabob received it with the utmost Respect, expressing himself in the highest Terms of Gratitude, for that distinguishing Friendship with which His Majesty was pleased to honour him: He then delivered it to Sir John's Secretary, who read it to an immense Concourse of People; several Gentlemen of the Council, and almost the whole Settlement attending. Nazir was then presented to the Nabob, which is an Offer of Money, as a congratulatory Present, after the Custom of India; and His Majesty's Ships (which had been previously stationed in full View of the Durbar) fired each a Royal Salute.

The Nabob then retired; and, leading Sir John to a private Apartment, attended by his Son Modar al Mulck and Khariooden Cawn, he presented him with a very rich Dress of Gold Brocade, made after the European Manner, with the Star upon the Left Breast, of which he requested his Acceptance, as the most honourable Mark of Respect to His Majesty, and Friendship to His Minister, according to the Custom of his Country. At the same Time he put a Gold Ring upon Sir John's Finger, with several Titles engraved in Persian, which is the Way of conferring Dignities in India. His Highness then left him with the two young Princes, his Brother, &c. and, returning to the Durbar, refused the Musnud, as His Majesty's Representative; upon which the Stag and Dolphin saluted the Sovereign with Twenty-one Guns each.

The Procession then began, and proceeded from the Great Chamber to the South Door of the Nabob's House, in the following Order:

Chubbahrs of the Durbar to clear the Way.

The Gentlemen of the Settlement two and two:

One of the Gentlemen of the Presence carrying a Persian Translation of His Majesty's Letter.

His Highness's European Secretary.

The Captains and Lieutenants of His Majesty's Navy, and Captain of Marines, two and two.

Sir John Lindsay's Secretary, carrying the Ensigns of the Order on a large Gold Salver.

Abdul Wachab Cawn, the Nabob's Brother, and his Highness's two youngest Sons.

After this Manner they proceeded round the East Part of the Nabob's House, till they came in Front of the Durbar, which faces to the North, and is a fine spacious Hall, the Top of which is supported by a double Row of Columns, and the Approach to it is by a Flight of Steps the full Extent of the House.

The Gentlemen, who led the Procession, as they mounted the Steps leading to the Durbar, opened to Right and Left, placing themselves on each Side. The Gentleman of the Presence advancing, placed His Majesty's Letter upon a Table richly gilt, and covered with Cloth of Gold, standing on the Right of the Musnud.

Sir John's Secretary also advancing, placed the Ensigns of the Order upon the same Table.

When Sir John, supported by the two young Princes, came in full View of the Musnud, where the Nabob was seated as His Majesty's Representative, with all his Khans and Great Officers of State about Him, they made a low Reverence to the Sovereign, which His Highness returned. Advancing to the Middle of the Durbar, they made another low Reverence, and on advancing to the Musnud a Third, the Nabob bowing each Time.

His Highness then commanded His Majesty's Letter to be read in Persian; which being done, he arose from the Musnud, and standing up, desired the Knight Elst to kneel: Which being done, he took the Ribbon in his Hand, and put it over Sir John's Head, with these Words: "In the Name of my very good Friend the King of Great Britain, whose most Sacred Person I have the Honour to represent on this Occasion, I invest you with the Ensigns of the most Honourable and Military Order of the Bath." His Highness then put the Collar of the Order round the Knight's Neck ; and, desiring him to rise; addressed him in a very elegant Speech in Persian, which his European Secretary read in English, as follows :

“ His most Gracious and most Excellent Majesty, the most Illustrious King of Great Britain, having, upon so many Occasions, honoured me with particular Marks of His Royal Friendship : And having thought proper to appoint me, by especial Commission, to represent His most Sacred Person, as Sovereign, on the present Occasion : Give Me Leave to tell you, Sir, His Minister Plenipotentiary in India, and Commander in Chief of His Ships in these Seas, that it makes me exceedingly happy to have this Opportunity of investing you with the Ensigns of the most Honourable Order of the Bath, which is conferred upon you as a Mark of Royal Approbation from the King your Master. At the same Time, I desire that you will bear Witness to the high Respect, Gratitude, and Reverence, with which I receive every Mark of distinguishing Friendship, which proceeds from His Illustrious Majesty.”

To which Sir John returned the following Answer, in English :

“ Penetrated with Gratitude for the high Honours my most gracious Sovereign has been pleased to confer on me, it makes my Happiness inexpressibly complete, to have the Honour of receiving such Marks of Royal Favour from the Hands of your Highness. Ever since I have had the Honour of residing near your Highness's Durbar, I have had the Happiness of being Witness to your Highness's sincere Attachment to the Person and Family of the King my most gracious Master, and with what Respect and Veneration you have, at all Times, received whatever proceeded from His Illustrious Majesty : Suffer me then, Sir, to assure your Highness, that an Account of these very honourable Marks of Respect and Attention shall be faithfully transmitted to the Royal Presence.”

This was, at the same Time, translated to the Nabob in Persian, by one of his Interpreters, His Majesty's Ships saluting with Nineteen Guns each.

The Ceremony being ended, Sir John was conducted back to the Garden by the two young Princes, while some Battalion Guns of the Nabob's, which had been drawn up on the Right of the Line, saluted, as he pass'd. Afterwards Sir John subscribed the following Oath, in the Presence of Four Councillors of Fort St. George, who had witnessed the Ceremony : “ I John Lindsay, Knight, His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary in India, &c. do promise to observe the Statutes of the most Honourable Order of the Bath, in every Point and Particular.”

In the Evening, the Nabob gave a most elegant Entertainment to the whole Settlement, at his House in St. Thomé, a Village near Madras. The Illuminations were exceedingly magnificent. The Walls of the Garden, about twenty Feet high, forming a Square of above two hundred Yards, were all covered with Lamps, beautifully disposed, and not less than Two hundred and twenty thousand in Number. On one Side appeared, in full Characters, His Majesty George the Third, and, at some Distance from it, his Excellency Sir John Lindsay ; on all the rest of the Walls, the Lamps were so arranged as to represent a Variety of curious Figures, executed in a very masterly Manner.

The Fireworks displayed on this Occasion were remarkable for their Variety and Grandeur. The Company were entertained with Dancing and Musick, after the Manner of the Country, in a large Pandahl, 120 Feet square, and about 30 Feet high, which had been built for the Wedding of his Highness's eldest Son, who sat here on the Musnud all the Time, receiving Compliments after their Manner. This also was finely illuminated with an immense Number of Lights. Supper was given to Three or Four Hundred People at two very large Tables ; and the Evening concluded with a splendid Ball. Upon the Whole, this Entertainment, in Elegance and Magnificence, greatly exceeded the Expectations of every one present.

Turin, August 28. We have had the hottest Summer here that has been felt for many Years ; and the Want of Rain for above two Months has entirely destroyed the latter Harvest. A Disemper broke out some Time since amongst the Horned Cattle in Savoy, but it is now entirely stopped. The Wheat Harvest in general has been very bad all over Italy ; and in Sicily it has almost entirely failed.

Cumberland-House, September 12.

This Day the Count de Pignatelli, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of the Two Sicilies, had a Private Audience of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

To which he was introduced by Stephen Cottrell, Esq; Assistant Master of the Ceremonies.
