To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Knights, Citizens and Burgeses, in Parliament assembled.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commons of Ireland in Parliament assembled, beg Leave to return your Majesty our most humble Thanks, for your Majesty's most gracious Answer to the Address of this House.

We are fully persuaded that the Support of your Majesty's Government is the great and firm Basis of the Freedom and Happiness of this Country; and the Care your Majesty is graciously pleased to express for the Welfare of this Kingdom, is a fresh Instance of that paternal Regard which your Majesty has always shewn to your faithful and loyal Subjects of Ireland, and cannot fail to excite in us the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Gratitude.

Leghorn, October 12. This Day His Britannick Majesty's Frigate the Venus (having on board his Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester) attended by the Alarm, arrived in this Road. His Royal Highness landed, having very politely declined the Governor's Offer to put the Garrison under Arms, and to shew his Royal Highness every Mark of Respect and Attention. The Governor, with the Officers of the Garrison, and Members of the British Factory, were at the Landing Place to receive his Royal Highness. The Governor, and the Commanding Officer of each Corps, had the Honour of Dining with him, and the Members of the British Factory That of kissing his Royal Highness's Hand.

Florence, October 15. Yesterday the Great Duke and Dutches returned to Town from their Country Seat of Poggio a Caiano, to celebrate the Empress Queen's Name Day, which is to be performed this Day with great Solemnity. And the Great Duke being informed of his Royal Highness the Duke of Gloucester's Intention to be present at this Solemnity, immediately gave Orders to suspend the Dispositions for his Dining in Publick, that he might dine with his Royal Highness, and accordingly sent Count Thurn to acquaint his Royal Highness therewith. An Hour after this was settled, News was received from Leghorn, of his Royal Highness's being very much indisposed, which prevented him from being present at the Gala.
