Roger Peck, Clerk.

This Day is published,

Price One Shilling and Six-Pence,

JUSTICE and POLICY, An ESSAY,

On the increasing Growth and Enormities of our great Cities; shewing the Breaches thereby occasioned in the Constitution, with a Method to repair them, and, through the Means of Morality and Industry, to place it upon a more firm Basis, by the Bands of Union, that Britain may become the Asylum of the Empire, with the Commerce of it, justly established, instead of exchanging Religion for Trade.

A L S O,

Considerations upon the State of Ireland, with a Proposal for the Relief of it, and a Scheme for its Benefit, by employing the Poor universally; together with Reflections on Police in general, and the Exportation of Provisions from Ireland in particular. Also Thoughts on Conquests, Trade, Military Colonies, &c. &c. Divided into Seven Chapters.

Addressed to a NOBLE PEER,

By a Freeholder in Ireland and Stockholder in England.
