By the KING,
A P R O C L A M A T I O N,
For Discontinuing the Bounties offered for Seamen, and Landmen, to enter themselves on Board His Majesty's Ships of War.

G E O R G E R.

WHEREAS We did, by Our Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the Twenty-second Day of April last, offer certain Bounties therein mentioned to all Able and Ordinary Seamen, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service; and also to all Able-bodied Landmen, not above the Age of Thirty-five Years, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, fit for Our Service, who should, on or before the Thirty-first Day of this Instant May, voluntarily enter themselves to serve in Our Royal Navy: And whereas We find it no longer necessary to continue the Armament at Sea; We have therefore thought fit, by and with the Advice of Our Privy Council, to publish this Our Royal Proclamation, hereby revoking and annulling Our said Proclamation of the Twenty-second Day of April last: And We do hereby declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, That the Payment of the several Bounties thereby offered, shall cease and determine, from and after the Date hereof.

Given at Our Court at St. James's, the Sixth Day of May, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-three, and in the Thirteenth Year of Our Reign.

G O D save the KING.

Westminster, May 10.

THIS Day, the Lords being met, a Message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons, acquainting them, that the Lords, authorized by Virtue of His Majesty's Commission, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate Attendance of this Honourable House in the House of Peers, to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein mentioned, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to
