caffel, scituate on a small Rivulet about two Leagues from Deuxponts, and at the fime time took his own quarters at Zargumines on the Sarre, directing the Marquis de Renel to post himself, with the detachment he brought from Flandres at Tentelin near Sarbrucke, and the Marquis de Joyeuse between Zargumines and Sarre Albe. Having thus disposed his Troops, he-understood that the Enemy had befieged Deuxponts, and thereupon refolved to march to them, and fight them; but they, upon-advice of it, raifed the Siege with great precipitation, and secured.

Strasburgh, Nev. 16. The Imperial Army is now actually on its march, in order to go into Winter-quarters. According to the repartition that hath been made, eight Regiments of Imperial Horfe, with the Troops of the Dake of Lorrain, and four Regiments of Foot, are to quarter in Suabia, and feven Regiments of Horfe, and four of Foot, are to march into Franconia, and to that end defign to pals the Neckar at Hailbron. The French Army, commanded by the Duke of Luxemburgh, has likewife quit ed Sunigons, and is marched towards Schleftadt.

Francfort, Nov. 18. Several loofe Reports are spread abroad concerning fome Rencounters which are faid to have hapned between the Troops of the Duke of Zell, and those of the Mareschal de Crequi ; but this is cerrain, that the Duke of Zell fin ing the Siege of Deuxponts which he had already begun, was not an enterprize which he could with reafon promife himfelf any fuccefs in at this time of the year abandon'd it, with refolution to retire with his Troops into Winter-quarters ; accordingly he encamped the 16 inflant at Lanftut, and yefterday marched towards Reyterlanterne. Some advice add, that in their march, the Marquis de Biffy with feveral Squadronis of Horfe and Come Dragoons attacked their Rear, which was commanded by 'Lieurenant General Chauvet, who received them fo vigoroully, that they were zepu fed, and many killed upon the place.

Cologne, Nov. 20. The Dukeof Ofnabrug has been here three days incognito and yesterday he received Letters from his Brother the Duke of Zell, which, it's faid, gave an account of his having quitted the deligh he had to attack Deuxponts of his being on his march to put his Troops into Winter quarters, and his having defeated the Marquis de Biffy who attacked his Rear. The Ofnabrug Troops two dayes fince endeavoured by force to make themfelves Mafters of the Monastery of Steinfelden, but they were reputied with lofs.

Liege, Nov. 20. The French, we hear, have demolified the Monastry of Cornelis Munster. The Governor of Limburg is at prefent at Stavelor, to fee the Fortifications of the Caffle blown up, having for that purpofe caufed Mines to be made under the walls. Here hath been fome diforder, on occasion of a Placaet of our Prince the Elector of Cologne, in which he forbids the railing of a certain Tax; as imposed without his confent; whereupon the feveral Companies have been affembled, who remain ftedfaft to their purpofe, to Levy the faid Tax. It is faid that fome of the Ofnabrug Troops are to winter at Aix Ia Chapelle, though the French have fent to those Magi-Arates to tell them that if they receive those Troops, they must expect to be' Treated by them accordingly.

S Nimeguen, Nov. 21. The 17 inftant, the French, Suedes and Dutch Ambaffadors, put their Powers into the hands of the Mediators, in order to their being examined by the contrary Parcies. Since here are arrived the Sieur Hengh Ambaffador 10fothe King of Denmark, and the Sieuri Bia pyl Ambaffaftor of the Elector of Brandenburgithe former after having been in Town 2 or 3 days incognito, this morning notifi'd his arrival to the Mediators, who have this afternoon vifited his Bxccllency. Our Letters from Cologne tell us, that the Emperors Ambaffadors were, daily expected there in their way hicher. It is faid that the Molt Christian King hath 1atified what was proposed by his Ambaffadors he e,about fetting out the Neutral Countrey round this place, which is to be about a League in compais. This evening is arrived here his Excellency the Lord Berkeley, fo that the three Ambaffadors of His Majefty of Great Britain who are to perform the office of Mediators, are now upon the place.

Hague, Nov. 24. We must not expect to hear of any more action from Germany this year, for as well the Imperial and French Armies on the Rhine by the Confederate Troops commanded by the Duke of Zell, are going into their Winter-quarters, not being able any longer to abide in the Field. The Elector of Brandenburgh has likewife turned the Siege of Stetin into a Blokade, and is himfelf returned to Berlin. Our Letters from Denmark give us an account that the Suedes were again retired from Helfingburg, after having plundered it. The next week the States of Holland aff mble, and the week following it's faid his Highness will take a journy to Zealand whiteball, Nov. 18. His Majefty has been pleafed to make these following alterations in the List of Sheriffs for the year enfuing.

Bucks.	Thomas Berringer Elq;
Cambridge, ")
&	Richard Drewry Elq;
Huft(ington .)
Leicefter	Rowland Browne of Liftrop Efq;
Stafford	Henry Stone Efq;
Surfey	Thomas Saunders Elq;
Suffex	Fohn Honey of Discheling Elq;
Wild.	Richard Hart Efg;
1 12421 1	Advertifementis.
	A C 5 1 101 M

A Touchstone for Gold and Silver Wares. Or a Manual for Goldimiths, and all other Perfons, whether Buyers, Sellers, or Wearers of any manner of Goldimiths Work. By W. B. of London, Goldimith Sold by J. Bellin-ger in citigrois-Inn Laoe, and T. Baffeis at the George near Cif-fords-Inn in Florifirees.

7 Hereas James Warner, Thomas Robinson, Simon, Burges

of Thame, John Smith of Tork, Thomas Turner, J ha Offley near Newarké, Thomas Willon of Gainsbrough, John Lewis and David Lewis of Wash Poole, John Jones, Andrew Swinfon, and divers others prefume, in contempt of Authority, to infest the Countries with Lotteries, and Games resembling to intere the Countries with Lotteries, and Games relembling Lotteries, (notwithflanding feveral former Advertifements to the Civil Magiftrates) fome by pretended Authrity, fome by counterfeited Deputations, and others, [as we are informed] by Countrance of fome inferious Officers, to the great damage, if not Ruine of feveral Truly Loyal Indigent Officers, to whom His Majeft y for their Sufferings and Services, hath granted all Lotteries for the Term of Thirteen years, with Prohibition to all others : It is therefore earnefilly defired, That all Mayors, Sheriffer Inflices of the Peace Bayliffer Conflables for would Sheriffs, Juftices of the Peace, Bayliffs, Conflables, Se would effectually Suppress all such Persons as shall freed or Exercise any Lotteries, or Games resembling Lotteries; other than such effedually Supprefs all fuch Perfons as fhall Fred or Exercice any Lotteries, or Games refembling Lotteries, other than fuch as are or fhall be Deputed under the Hands of fome of the Committioners for all Lotteries, and the Scal of the Lottery Office, with this Infeription, MBLIORA DESIGNAVI. Office, with the infeription of the faith Cellaring to Obadiab Blag aves a Bookfeller at the Black Bear near the North door of St Paris Churck ward, thall have 3-0-3. Remard.

a Bookieller at the Black Bear near the North 4004 or or or rans Church yard, fhall have 30.6, Remard. Off the first of November from the Red Lyon in Petty France, Weitmuffer, of Mr Mayes of the Privy Purfe to His Majefty, A' blew freekled Bitch, the Ihape of a French Setter, with a florath Itali, and red Bars, wich s white fiteak down the face, and two sech wasting before. Frany per-fon can bring her to the place from whence the wastoft; they hall he wall remarded. fhall be well rewarded.

Printed by Tho: Newcomb in the Savoy, 1676.