BARRINGTON.

St. James's, April 8, 1775.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, on Sunday Morning last, between the Hours of One and Two, a Fire broke out at the Turpentine Works in Goswell-street, belonging to Mr. John Crutchfield of Holborn Bridge, and that from many Circumstances there is great Reason to believe the same were wilfully and maliciously set on Fire by Persons unknown: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in so atrocious a Crime, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any Person or Persons concerned in the said Offence, (except the Person or Persons who did actually set Fire to the said Turpentine Works) who shall discover him, her, or their Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SUFFOLK.

And, as a further Encouragement, the said Mr. John Crutchfield doth hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, (except as before excepted) to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.

In<sup>o</sup> Crutchfield.
