St. James's, June 6.

THE following Address of the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, having been transmitted by the Right Honourable the Lord Cathcart, His Majesty's High Commissioner, to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Ministers and Elders met in the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland, beg Leave humbly to approach your Majesty with Sentiments of respectful and sincere Condolance on Occasion of the untimely Death of your Majesty's Royal Sister, the late Queen of Denmark.

Attached to your sacred Person by Affection no less than by Duty, we are deeply interested in whatever affects our gracious Sovereign, and are most sensibly touched with an Event, which, to the Cares inseparable from Royalty, adds the Feeling of domestic Affliction.

Possessed, as we are, with Reverence and with Gratitude towards the illustrious House of Hanover, to which, under God, the Nation is indebted for that full Enjoyment of the Protestant Religion, and of Publick Liberty, which our Ancesters were solicitous to secure when they called it to the British Throne, every Loss sustained by your Majesty in your august Family fills us with the most sincere Concern.

That the God of Grace, and Father of Mercies, may, on this Occasion, pour into your Royal Heart those Consolations which flow from Sentiments of Reverence for the Divine Government, and of dutiful Submission to the Divine Will; that He may sanctify this national Affliction; and, by graciously prolonging your valuable Life, that of our gracious Queen, and the Lives of your Royal Offspring, may afford us the comfortable Prospect of continuing to enjoy the many Blessings by which we are distinguished from the Nations around us, are the earnest Prayers of,

May it please your Majesty, your Majesty's most faithful, most obedient, and most loyal Subjects, The Ministers and Elders met in this National Assembly of the Church of Scotland.

Signed in our Name, in our Presence, and at our Appointment, by David Sharw, Moderator.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, June 6, 1775.
