From Tuesday October 3, to Saturday October 7, 1775.

St. James's, October 7.

THE following Adress of the Mayor, Burgeses, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the City of Bristol, at the Guildhall assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by Charles Hotchkin, Esq; late Mayor, John Durbin, Esq; late Sheriff, Richard Combe, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for Aldborough in Suffolk, James Laroche, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for Bodmyn, Matthew Brickdale, Esq; Thomas Tyndall, Esq; John Harcourt, Esq; Isaac Elton the Younger, Esq; William Miles, Esq; John Crofts, Esq; George Daubeny, Esq; William Hart, Esq; John Powell, Esq; and John Taylor Vaughan, Esq; being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Adress His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously: And they all had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

September 28, 1775.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeses, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants, of the City of Bristol, at the Guildhall assembled, beg Leave to address your Majesty on the present Conjunction of Affairs between Great Britain and your American Colonies.

With Gratitude we acknowledge the many and great Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government; during which, the Trade and Commerce of this ancient and loyal City have increased to a Degree unknown to former Times, to be attributed only to the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the many excellent Laws lately passed for the Encouragement of those inexhaustible Sources of Wealth.

Truly sensible of your Majesty's unwearied Endeavors for the Support of the Religious and Civil Rights of all your Subjects, we cannot but with Astonishment behold the Conduct of a few disappointed Men, whose sophistical Arguments, and seditious Correspondence, have, in a great Measure, been the Occasion of deluding your American Subjects into open Rebellion.

As British Subjects, we testify our Abhorrence of this unnatural Rebellion; and, though we deeply lament the Misfortunes our American Brethren have brought upon themselves, yet we cannot but express our warmest Wishes for the Success of those Measures your Majesty hath adopted in Support of the Legislative Authority of Great Britain over all your Dominions, which we trust will now be permanently established; and hope, that the Loyalty which prevails here, will soon convince our Fellow-Subjects in America of their Error, and bring them back to a just Sense of their Duty and Allegiance; this, and this only, can restore them to your Majesty's Favor, and to that flourishing State they so long have, and still might have, enjoyed.

May your Majesty's Councils ever prevail to the extirpating of Licentiousness; and, by a firm Establishment of real Liberty, may you triumph over the Enemies of our glorious Constitution, and long continue to reign over a free, united, and happy People: To obtain these great Ends, we assure your Majesty of our utmost Assistance and Support; and declare, that a zealous Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, a Veneration for the Laws, and an ardent Affection for Order and good Government, are the Principles which direct and animate our Conduct.

The following Adrefs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgefles, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Warwick, has been prefented to His Majesty by the Honourable Robert Fulke Greville, One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Adrefs His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgefles, and Inhabitants, of the Borough of Warwick, unbiafled by Party, unawed by Faction, and not blinded by falfe Patriotifm, but actuated by a dutiful and fincere Regard for your Majesty's Perfon, arifing from the cleareft Conviction of your Majesty's earneft Wifhes and Endeavours to promote the Prosperity of Great Britain, humbly preſume to adrefs your Majesty, with Hearts replete with Gratitude for the innumerable Bleffings, which, through Providence, and the Wiſdom and Mildnefs of your Majesty's Government, we now enjoy.

It is with the utmoſt Concern we fee the Acts of the Britiſh Legiſlature contemned and oppoſed by many of your Majesty's Subjects in North America, through the Incitement and Miſrepresentation of artful, deſigning, and ſeditious Men, both at Home and Abroad; who, under the ſpecious Pretext of preſerving the Liberty of the People, are aiming at a total Subverſion of all Law and good Government, and conſequently introducing the worſt of Tyrannies.

And we cannot but ſincerely lament, that they have ſo far ſucceeded, under the Cloak of Mock-Patriotiſm, as to incite Numbers of your Majesty's American Subjects to be guilty of open Rebellion.

We therefore think we ſhould but ill deſerve the Appellation of Engliſhmen, if we refrained from declaring to our Sovereign, and to the World, our utter Abhorrence of the Authors and Abettors of ſuch outrageous and traitorous Proceedings.

And, at this alarming Criſis, we conſider ourſelves obliged, as loyal Subjects, and real Friends to the true Intereſt of Great Britain and it's inſeſtimable Conſtitution, to aſſure your Majesty, that, as the lenient Treatment of your Majesty's infatuated and miſled Subjects in America has been inſufficient to induce and prevail on them to return to their Reaſon and Allegiance, we apprehend compulſory and effectual Methods are not only juſtifiable in Law and Conſcience, but abſolutely expedient to be exerted with Vigour and Reſolution.

And we beg Leave to aſſure your Majesty, that we will, with Alacrity and Spirit, ſupport, to the utmoſt of our Ability, ſuch Meaſures as your Majesty ſhall think proper to purſue, for enforcing and maintaining Obedience to the Laws in every Part of your Majesty's Dominions; entirely conſiding in your Majesty's Goodneſs, becauſe we are fully ſatiſfied, that, upon this important Occaſion, every Plan which your Majesty ſhall adopt will be ſo judiciously concerted and wiſely directed, that it will preſerve the Freedom of the Conſtitution inviolate, and advance the Honour and Proſperity of this Kingdom.

Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the Borough of Warwick, this Twenty-eighth Day of September, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſeventy-five.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeffes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth in Common Council assembled, has been presented to His Majesty by Charles Townshend, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeffes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Great Yarmouth, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave, at this important Juncture, to lay at your Majesty's Feet the strongest Assurances of our faithful and zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and to the supreme Legislature of Great Britain.

We have observed the tender and humane Reluctance with which your Majesty and the Parliament have entered upon Measures of Coercion against your Majesty's disobedient Subjects in America; and, at the same Time, we cannot but have remarked, with the deepest Concern, that the Demands of those deluded Men have risen in Proportion to the Unwillingness they have seen in the Parent State to have Recourse to Measures of Force, till at length some of your Majesty's Colonies have dared to enter into an open Rebellion. Their Troops have taken the Field; Money has been raised to pay them; and an illegal Assembly, now sitting at Philadelphia, has usurped, and is executing with a heavy Hand, those Powers which have been denied to the Legislature of Great Britain.

In this Situation of Affairs, we think it our Duty to express our Abhorrence of the Rebellion now carrying on in America, and to make a Tender of our Lives and Fortunes towards the Suppression of it; beseeching your Majesty to take Care, that your Empire be not dismembered, nor the supreme Authority of the British Legislature impaired. Exert, Great Sir, your whole Force, should it be necessary, in the Support of these important Objects; when they are secured, we know, from the Experience we have had of the Mildness of your Majesty's Disposition, that you will restore Peace to your misguided Subjects in America, with as much Pleasure as you have evidently had Pain in entering upon hostile Measures against them.

Given under our Common Seal at our Guildhall, the 26th Day of September, 1775.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal inhabitants of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk, has been presented to His Majesty by Charles Townshend, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, and Principal Inhabitants, of the Burgh of Great Yarmouth in the County of Norfolk.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave to approach your Majesty in the most loyal Manner, to express the Sentiments of our Hearts in an undisssembled Duty and Affection to your Majesty and our happy Constitution.

We cannot but lament the Misery, and abhor the Conduct, of many of our deluded Fellow-Subjects in Parts of your American Colonies, who have plunged themselves into an open Rebellion, by preferring the Influence of seditious Men to the mild Government and tender Protection of their Sovereign and the Supreme Legislature.

We equally admire your Majesty's Wisdom and Goodness, in taking the gracious Means to avert their Ruin. The Measures now adopted, we trust, will speedily conquer the Evils, and restore the general Tranquility; being agreeable to the Spirit of our Laws, and for the true Honour and Happiness of all your Majesty's dutiful Subjects, amongst whom we intreat your Majesty to believe believe none shall excel us in the most faithful and grateful Zeal.

Given under our Hands the Thirtieth Day of September, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

Leave most humbly to approach the Throne with our unfeigned Thanks for the Happiness which, next under God, we owe to your Majesty's paternal Care and Tenderness, and which, under Divine Providence, have brought this Country to its present Height of Glory and Power.

The Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, the Benevolence and Goodness of your Heart, would have preserved a Continuance of those Blessings to the whole Empire, if unfortunately there did not exist here, as well as in America, Men, who, void of all Principle, are hardened enough, at the Expence of every Duty they owe your Majesty and their Country, to become at once (under the Masque of Patriotism) disrespectful to your Sacred Person, and Disturbers of the Publick Peace. Their Machinations have driven headlong the Americans into a Rebellion, which Cowardice only prevents their joining in.

In this alarming Crisis, it is our Duty, and we do most cheerfully offer your Majesty our Lives and Properties, in Support of your Person, Crown and Dignity; and we rely on your Majesty, that the indubitable Rights of this Kingdom will be inviolably preserved, and the traitorous Attempts to subvert its Legislative Authority in America, will never be submitted to; nor a successful Rebellion be suffered to fully the Glory of your Majesty's Reign.

Given under our Common Seal, this 22d Day of September, 1775.

John Roberts, Mayor.

The following Address of the Principal Inhabitants, and Manufacturers, of the Borough and Town of Taunton in the County of Somerset, has been presented to His Majesty by John Cabbell, M. D. one of the Aldermen, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously; and Dr. Cabbell had the Honour to kiss His Majesty's Hand.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Principal Inhabitants and Manufacturers of the Borough and Town of Taunton in the County of Somerset.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
TRULY sensible of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign, permit us to approach your Throne, and express our Abhorrence of the deluded Spirit which prevails in your Colonies of America, where most of the Inhabitants are in Arms and open Rebellion against your Crown and the Laws of this Realm.

We beg Leave to give your Majesty the most solemn Assurances, that we shall on every possible Occasion to sacrifice whatsoever is dear and valuable to us, to enable your Majesty to bring your rebellious Subjects in America to a just Sense of their Duty; to defend your Royal Person and illustrious Family; and support our Constitution both in Church and State.

The following Adrefs of the Provost, Magiftrates, and Town-Council of Montrose, in Council assembled, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to His Majesty: Which Adrefs His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Adrefs of the Provost, Magiftrates, and Town Council of Montrose, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DEEPLY impressed with a Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most clement Reign, we beg Leave to express our grateful Sense thereof, and that of the good People of this your ancient Town, whom we at present represent.

We have beheld, with Surprize and Uneasiness, that the forbearing and lenient Measures pursued by your Majesty, in order to bring our Fellow-Subjects in North America to Reflection, Reason, and Attention to their own true Interest, have, through their Infatuation hitherto, not had the desired Effect. We sincerely regret their Folly, condemn their Obstinacy and Ingratitude, and are much concerned they have allowed themselves to be so deluded as to rise up in Arms against their Mother Country, by which they have been nourished and protected, and who lately, at an Expence of so much Blood and Treasure, rescued and defended them from their Enemies. But while we lament their Misconduct, and their Misimprovement of the great Advantages they enjoyed under your Majesty's mild Government, we disapprove of and bear Testimony against their rebellious Proceedings, and are still filled with greater Astonishment and Horror at the unnatural and seditious Practices of some of our own Countrymen, who, under the Mask of Patriotism, but in order only to serve their own selfish and mercenary Designs, have we fear instigated them to and encouraged them in such illegal and disorderly Practices.

We very much detest and disclaim all such Proceedings; and we do assure your Majesty, that, as we highly approve of the prudent Measures you have hitherto taken in Support of the Honour and Independence of your Crown, and the Supremacy of your Parliament; so we will in our several Stations exert ourselves to the utmost of our Power for supporting your Majesty therein, and in all such future Measures as the Wisdom of your Parliament may find necessary for securing and preserving unimpaired the just and constitutional Rights of Great Britain over all her Colonies.

We are happy in acquainting your Majesty, that the Trade and Manufactures in this Town and Neighbourhood have not in the smallest Degree been hurt or affected by the American revolt being shut against us; that at present our People are all duly employed in their several Occupations, our Manufactures find a ready Demand, and Peace and Harmony prevail amongst all your Majesty's Subjects here.

We should rejoice, and do most earnestly wish, that a Reconciliation would yet take Place, that so the further Effusion of human Blood might be prevented, and Peace, with all the Blessings thereof, restored to your Majesty's Dominions. But as, through the Wantonness and unreasonable Conduct of the Colonies, this Nation has been long severely agitated and distressed, great Expence incurred, and the Lives of many of our Countrymen causelessly taken away, in Defence of the Nation's lawful Rights and Property; we therefore humbly hope, and beg your Majesty, that vigorous Meaasures be adopted and continued, until such a Settlement takes Place as shall be found consistent with the just and equitable Claims of America; and the Honour, the Safety and true Interest of Great Britain. And for this Purpose we pray that God may bless your Majesty's Councils with Wisdom, grant Success to your Arms, restore Peace and brotherly Love to all your Subjects, and spare your Majesty long, very long, to reign with Glory over a happy, a free, and united People.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the rest of the Magiftrates and Town-Council, at Montrose, the 23d of September, 1775, by Alexander Christie, Provost.
