The following Adrefs of the Provost, Magiftrates, and Town-Council of Montrose, in Council assembled, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been by him presented to His Majesty: Which Adrefs His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Adrefs of the Provost, Magiftrates, and Town Council of Montrose, in Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

DEEMPLY impressed with a Sense of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's most clement Reign, we beg Leave to express our grateful Sense thereof, and that of the good People of this your ancient Town, whom we at present represent.

We have beheld, with Surprize and Uneasiness, that the forbearing and lenient Measures pursued by your Majesty, in order to bring our Fellow-Subjects in North America to Reflection, Reason, and Attention to their own true Interest, have, through their Infatuation hitherto, not had the desired Effect. We sincerely regret their Folly, condemn their Obstinacy and Ingratitude, and are much concerned they have allowed themselves to be so deluded as to rise up in Arms against their Mother Country, by which they have been nourished and protected, and who lately, at an Expence of so much Blood and Treasure, rescued and defended them from their Enemies. But while we lament their Misconduct, and their Misimprovement of the great Advantages they enjoyed under your Majesty's mild Government, we disapprove of and bear Testimony against their rebellious Proceedings, and are still filled with greater Astonishment and Horror at the unnatural and seditious Practices of some of our own Countrymen, who, under the Mask of Patriotism, but in order only to serve their own selfish and mercenary Designs, have we fear instigated them to and encouraged them in such illegal and disorderly Practices.

We very much detest and disclaim all such Proceedings; and we do assure your Majesty, that, as we highly approve of the prudent Measures you have hitherto taken in Support of the Honour and Independence of your Crown, and the Supremacy of your Parliament; so we will in our several Stations exert ourselves to the utmost of our Power for supporting your Majesty therein, and in all such future Measures as the Wisdom of your Parliament may find necessary for securing and preserving unimpaired the just and constitutional Rights of Great Britain over all her Colonies.

We are happy in acquainting your Majesty, that the Trade and Manufactures in this Town and Neighbourhood have not in the smallest Degree been hurt or affected by the American revolt being shut against us; that at present our People are all duly employed in their several Occupations, our Manufactures find a ready Demand, and Peace and Harmony prevail amongst all your Majesty's Subjects here.

We should rejoice, and do most earnestly wish, that a Reconciliation would yet take Place, that so the further Effusion of human Blood might be prevented, and Peace, with all the Blessings thereof, restored to your Majesty's Dominions. But as, through the Wantonness and unreasonable Conduct of the Colonies, this Nation has been long severely agitated and distressed, great Expence incurred, and the Lives of many of our Countrymen causelessly taken away, in Defence of the Nation's lawful Rights and Property; we therefore humbly hope, and beg your Majesty, that vigorous Meaasures be adopted and continued, until such a Settlement takes Place as shall be found consistent with the just and equitable Claims of America; and the Honour, the Safety and true Interest of Great Britain. And for this Purpose we pray that God may bless your Majesty's Councils with Wisdom, grant Success to your Arms, restore Peace and brotherly Love to all your Subjects, and spare your Majesty long, very long, to reign with Glory over a happy, a free, and united People.

Signed in Name and by Appointment of the rest of the Magiftrates and Town-Council, at Montrose, the 23d of September, 1775, by Alexander Christie, Provost.

Custom-house, London, October 5, 1775.

WHEREAS Noble Spring, of Dulwich in the County of Surry, who has for several Years last past, been employed in the Service of the Customs in the Port of London, under the Collector Outwards, stands charged upon Oath before the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor of the City of London, upon a violent Suspicion of feloniously and falsely making, forging, and counterfeiting a certain Receipt or Acquittance on the Back of a Dibenure, for the Sum of 182l. 10s. with Intention to cheat and defraud His Majesty of the same; and whereas the said Noble Spring hath withdrawn himself from his Attendance in the Long Room;

The Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs, in order to bring the said Noble Spring to Justice, do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to any Person or Persons who shall, within One Month from the Date hereof, apprehend and take, or cause to be apprehended and taken, the said Noble Spring, and brought before the Lord Mayor of London, or some other of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, in order to his Commitment for the said Offence; to be paid by the Receiver
