

Thomas Clinch	Jos. Stephens	Rich. Humphreys
Tho. Clinch, jun.	Sam. Gilman, jun.	James Dudge
Joseph Colen	J. Bedwell	Henry Urley
John Hill	John Brown	John Fisher
Richard Parsons	G. Lawrence	John Savage
Thomas Poole	Richard Gigg	Thomas Cox
Thomas Gale	David Archer	Richard Winiford
William Jones	Penj. Baldwin	William Pincott
John Gardner	John Sauncers	Jeremiah Powell
Henry Pitt	Daniel Hawkins	John Bennet
Thomas Hill	Joseph Smith	James Pincott
James Clements	Daniel Parry	John Harding
William Wells	William Coates	Nathaniel Young
Thomas Bennett	Thomas Howse	John Cherrington
Jarvis Wheatley	William Baldwin	Henry Sainsbury
Benj. Richardson	Samuel Gilman	Joseph Osborne
Thomas Waight	Jos. Cook	William Baldwin
Richard Waight	John Pincott	John Haines
John Croome	Tho. Cherrington

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Haddington, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir George Suttie, Bart. their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Haddington, convened at their Quarter-Sessions the Thirty-first Day of October, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-five.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Haddington, being under the deepest Concern at that Rebellion which has lately broke out in some of your Majesty's Colonies in America, humbly beg Leave to address your Majesty on this most critical Occasion, and to testify our Disapprobation of these unjustifiable Proceedings, with the most solemn Assurances that we will, to the utmost of our Power, support your Majesty in suppressing the said Rebellion, and in maintaining the Authority and Dignity of the King and Parliament of Great Britain.

With much Regret we see Colonies, which owe their Existence, their boasted Opulence, and every Blessing they enjoyed in their late prosperous State, to the unwearied and tender Care of their Parent Country, regardless of the Hand that has reared and supported them, at the Expence of so much Blood and Treasure, and ungratefully attempting to throw off their Dependence on their Mother Country.

From the Experience we have had of the Clemency of your Majesty's Government, and the Temper and Moderation of both Houses of Parliament, we are fully satisfied that no Endeavours will be wanting, to induce our deluded Fellow-Subjects to return to that Allegiance which they owe to your Majesty, and to that Obedience which they owe to the Constitution, which our Ancestors judged no Expence too great to establish, and which has flourished, pure and uninterrupted, under the mild Government of the House of Hanover.

May that Being who governs the Universe, direct your Majesty's Measures and Councils, so that from the present Confusion, Order may arise, and Peace be again restored; and that your Majesty may long reign over an happy and united People, is the earnest Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Signed by our Præses, and by our Authority,
George Brown, Præses.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the ancient Burrow of Haddington, East Lothian, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir George Suttie, Bart. Representative in Parliament for the County of Haddington, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Council of your ancient Burrow of Haddington, East Lothian, in Common-Council assembled, filled with the deepest Concern at the unjustifiable and rebellious Proceedings of some of your Majesty's Colonies in America, beg Leave to approach your Royal Throne, to testify our entire Disapprobation and Abhorrence of them, with the most solemn Assurances that we will support your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes in maintaining the Authority of the Legislature, which we conceive does and ought to extend over every Part of the British Dominions.

With Regret and Indignation we see Colonies, which owe their Existence, and every Blessing that attended their late prosperous Situation, to this their Parent Country, unnaturally regardless of the fostering Hand that raised and supported them, and affecting Distinctions in their Dependence, not founded in Law, or in the Constitution of Great Britain.

We are convinced, by the experienced Clemency of your Majesty's Government, that no Endeavours will be wanting to induce our deluded Fellow-Subjects to return to their Obedience to that Constitution, which our Ancestors blessed to establish, and which has flourished pure and uninterrupted under the mild Government of the House of Hanover.

May that Being who governs the Universe, so direct your Majesty's Councils and Measures, that, from the present Confusion, Order may arise, and Peace again be restored.

That your Majesty may long reign over an happy and united People, is the earnest Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects,
The Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the Burrow of Haddington, in Common Council assembled.

In Name and by Appointment of the Council,
James Dudgeon, Provost.

The following Address of the Provost, Magistrates, and Town Council of the Borough of Burntisland, in Common Council assembled, having been transmitted to the Earl of Suffolk, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Provost, Magistrates,
and Town-Council of the Borough of Burntisland, in Common-Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of your Borough of Burntisland, humbly presume to approach your Majesty, acknowledging with Gratitude the many Blessings we have enjoyed since your auspicious Accession to the Throne of these Kingdoms.

Convinced by our own Happiness under your Majesty's Government, that your paternal Care and Protection has been also extended to the whole of your Dominions, we view with Astonishment the Conduct of your Subjects in America, now in Arms to oppose your Majesty's Authority, and the Legislative Power of the British Parliament. We trust that, by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, some speedy and effectual Means will be devised for reducing your infatuated Subjects to due Obedience; and we hope that they themselves will soon perceive, how much they have been deluded by the artful Misrepresentations of factious and designing Men.

Confident that such will be the Effects of your Majesty's Deliberations, allow us, most gracious Sovereign, to increase the Number of loyal Subjects who have at this Time of Tumult expressed their warm Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Family; assuring your Majesty that we will, to the utmost of our Power, join in supporting your lawful Authority against all Attempts, either foreign or domestic, to invade your Majesty's Rights, or those of the British Legislature.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous, over a free, united, and grateful People, is the constant Wish and Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects,
The Provost, Magistrates, and Town-Council of Your Borough of Burntisland.
Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment, the Common Seal of the Borough being hereto affixed.
James Torowjend Oswald, Provost.

Burntisland, November 1, 1775.

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kinross, has been presented to His Majesty by Mr. Adams, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of Peace, and Commissioners of Supply of the County of Kinross, beg Leave