

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday November 28, to Saturday December 2, 1775.

St. James's, December 2.

THE following Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, has been presented to His Majesty by the Rev. Richard Farmer, D. D. the Vice-Chancellor, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars, of the University of Cambridge.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and faithful Subjects, the Chancellor, Masters, and Scholars of the University of Cambridge, in full Senate assembled, think it our Duty at this alarming Crisis to approach your Throne with the deepest and most grateful Sense of the many Blessings, which, through the Dispensation of the Divine Providence, we have participated with our Fellow-Subjects under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

Anxious for the Continuance of those Blessings in every Part of your Majesty's Dominions, and animated with the warmest Loyalty and Affection for your Royal Person and Government, we cannot remain silent Spectators of the unnatural Rebellion, into which many of our Brethren in your Majesty's American Colonies have been unhappily seduced. We see their Delusion with equal Indignation and Concern: We disclaim the Opinions on which they proceed, as destructive of the happiest Constitution, that hath ever existed in the History of Mankind, and subversive of all Order and good Government: Yet we pity their Infatuation, and lament the Miseries which it is necessarily bringing upon them.

Relying with full Confidence on your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Tenderness, and convinced that You will pursue every Method, consistent with the Dignity of Government and the Preservation of the Constitution; to prevent, as much as possible, the Effusion of Blood, and to restore due Obedience and Peace; we fervently implore Heaven to bless your Majesty's Counsels with Success; so that the Crown and Dominions of this Realm may be transmitted with undiminished Lustre to your Majesty's remotest Posterity.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon, has been presented to His Majesty by George Wombwell, Esq; One of their Representatives in Parliament, accompanied by the Earl of Sandwich, Recorder of the said Borough, and Lord Viscount Hinchinbrook, one of the Aldermen, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon, beg Leave most humbly to approach your Royal Person, to offer to your Majesty our most grateful Acknowledgements for the wise Measures you have taken to enforce the Legislative Authority of the Parliament of Great-Britain over all your extensive Dominions.

To beseech your Majesty to use every Constitutional Effort to bring your rebellious Subjects in America to acknowledge their past Errors, and to submit to that legal Authority, which they have dared to resist, with the most unprovoked and violent Outrages.

Our Offer of contributing Aid towards reducing the Colonies to Obedience, by desiring your Majesty to dispose of our Lives and Fortunes, is, we are sensible, but of very little Importance to the Completion of so great a Work; but we can only offer our All: And we flatter ourselves that we may say with Truth, that none of your Majesty's Subjects exceed us in Loyalty to your Sacred Person, or in Abhorrence of the vile Malignations of those Disturbers of the Publick Tranquillity, who, by various Means, have given Encouragement to the deluded Colonists to hope for Success; in what we are convinced is their principal Object, the Establishing themselves in an Independency of the Mother-Country.

J. J. Turner, Mayor
SANDWICH, Recorder
George Wombwell

Aldermen.

Reade Peacock
L. Desborough,
Chamberlain
Robert Godby
W. Smith
George Rust
Robert Slow
W. Peacock
Charles Greeg
HINCHINGBROOK
Hugh Ferrar

Robert Hodson,
Rector

G. Raitt, M. D.

John Smith, Clerk
Joseph Butt
Will. Catten Griffin
John Randall
John Lawrence
John Cooke, A. M.
Robert Stafford
Stephen Arundel
C. Maule
Thomas Portler
Bardolph Cater
J. Burt
Edward Masters
Harris

John Maule, A. M.

John Lucas
James Billingham
William Bardolph
John Moore
Robert Slater
John Philpott
Thomas Jones
Martin Mallatrat
John Matthews
Robert Nunn
William Austin
William Popely
John Atlee Adams
S. Hardy
Joel Goodes

William Stratten

John Marshall

Robert Baker,

John Bishop

John Newell

Thomas Sawyer

William Phillips

Thomas Turland

William Nunn

William Howson

Henry Waton

John Holmes

Phillip Stokes

Richard Bale

Jasper Archdeacon

Samuel Goodes

John Bale

Joseph Wythers

John Fisher

Philip Goodes

William Robinson

Joel Goodes

William Maile

John Maile

James Maile

Robert Leman

J. Scott

Thomas Pattison

John Finch

John Pumfrett

John Bedford, jun.

John Tayler

William Beard

Gilbert Cater

John Cater

William Maile

J. Brock

Jacob Godfell

Thomas Cooke

Richard Agutter

Richard Chaffer

Lower Gimber

Richard Whitehead

William Yates

Richard Bolton

James Goodes

J. Deane

Arthur Ashton

William Cater

John Chambers

William Bolton

Richard Lamb

Joseph Johnson

John Hendrick

Richard Cuthbert

William Paine

James Bradshaw

John Warren

John Carr

John Dixon

William Cater

George Whitchurch

James Morris

Henry Dobson

Thomas Martin

Stephen Rutter

John Jenkinson

Jacob Hunt

Robert Hodson, jun.

Henry Danell

James Wood

Andrew Canfield

John Rowe

Goodes Wood Ward

James Baker

James Watson

John Sperry

Samuel Franks

William Franks

John Rayment

William Parket

William Rowe

William Robson

Jacob Morhard

James Lamb

Thomas James

Henry Blain

John Tollope, Clerk

John Perkins

Matthew Edis

H. Grant

Alexander Boyce

Nathaniel Goodman

John Mawley

William Yelder

Robert Agutter

Thomas Maile

Robert Johnson

Richard Adams

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Wigan in the County Palatine of Lancaster, has been presented to His Majesty by Sir Richard Clayton, Bart. being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Merchants,