St. James's, December 12.

The following Adrefs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Tradefmen, and Manufacturers of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bolton in the Moors in the County Palatine of Lancafter, has been prefented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable Lord Stanley, accompanied by Sir Thomas Egerton, Bart. (the Representatives in Parliament of the said County) being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Adrefs His Majesty was pleafed to receive very graciously.

To the KING's moft Excellent Majesty,

The humble Adrefs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Tradefmen and Manufacturers of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bolton in the Moors in the County Palatine of Lancafter.

Moft Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's moft dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Tradefmen and Manufacturers of the Town and Neighbourhood of Bolton in the Moors, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Prefence, and, with Hearts filled with Gratitude, to exprefs the juft Senfe we have of your many Kingly Virtues, and of the numberlefs Bleffings we enjoy under your mild and aufpicious Government.

We confider, as not the leaft of thefe, the conftant Encouragement given by your Majesty to Commerce, and, in Confequence thereof, the greatly increafed and flourifhing State of the Trade of this Town, the Center of the extenfive Cotton Manufacture of this populous County.

Thus bound by every Tie of Duty and Affection, we fhould think ourfelves highly criminal were we backward in joining with the reft of your Majesty's faithful Subjects, in expreffing our Abhorrence of that groundlefs and unnatural Rebellion now raging in many of your American Colonies.

We have the greateft Confidence, that your Majesty, whofe Wifdom, Clemency and paternal Goodnefs we have fo long experienced, will employ the moft effectual Means to reduce to Obedience our mifguided Fellow-Subjects.

Your Majesty may at all Times rely upon our Fidelity and firm Attachment to your Sacred Perfon and Family, and our utmoft Exertions in Support of the Legiflative Authority of thefe Realms.

N. B. The Remainder of the Names of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Tradefmen, and Manufacturers, who figned the above Adrefs, are omitted for Want of Room, but fhall be inferted in next Saturday's Gazette.

The following Adrefs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Blackburn in the County Palatine of Lancafter, has been prefented to His Majesty by Sir Thomas Egerton, Bart. accompanied by the Right Honourable Lord Stanley, (the Representatives in Parliament of the said County) being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Adrefs His Majesty was pleafed to receive very graciously.

To the KING's moft Excellent Majesty,

The humble Adrefs of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Blackburn in the County Palatine of Lancafter.

Moft Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects presume to approach the Throne, to exprefs our unfeigned Gratitude for the Bleffings we have enjoyed under the paternal Influence of your Government, and to testify our Detestation of the unnatural and rebellious Conduct of your American Subjects, who, forgetful of the conftant Protection afforded them in all Times of Danger, at an immense Expence, by their Parent Country, have, with unexampled Ingratitude, fet her at Defiance, and moft audaciously ufurped the Dominion of her Colonies.

To the benignant Care and Affection which your Majesty hath fhewn to your People, in the Protection of their Liberties, and the Laws of the Conftitution, and in the Encouragement of Trade and Commerce, we attribute the great Increase and Extension of the Manufactures carried on in this Town and Neighbourhood, by which many Thousands of your Subjects are fupported.—And as Reports have been induftriously propagated, that the Trade of this Kingdom is reduced to the moft ruinous State, in Confequence of the American Rebellion, we think it our Duty to contradict fuch Assertions, fo far as they refpect the Trade of this populous Country.

We rely, with the greateft Confidence, on the Wifdom of the Legislature, for the Execution of fuch Meafures as fhall be thought moft conducive to the Suppreffion of this dangerous Confpiracy; in which we beg Leave to affure your Majesty of our utmoft Support. And when the Americans fhall be fenfible of their Mifconduct, and make a proper Submission to that Authority which they have fo daringly oppofed, we humbly preffume to wifh, that the Protection of Government may be again extended to them under fuch Regulations as fhall be thought neceffary for the Prefervation of their future Fidelity.

N. B. The Names of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Manufacturers, and Principal Inhabitants, who figned the above Adrefs, fhall be inferted in next Saturday's Gazette.

The other Adreffes, which have been prefented to His Majesty, fhall be inferted as foon as poffible.
