St. James's, February 20.

HE following Address of the Gentry, Clergy, Principal Inhabitants, Manufacturers, and Freemen, of the Borough of Sudbury in the County of Sufforty has been presented to His Majetty by Sir Walden Hammer, Bart. One of their Representatives in Parlian ent, being introduced by the Lord of His Majetty a Bed. Chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majetty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.
The humble Address of the Gentry, Clergy,
I'r neipal Inhabitants, Manufacturers, and Freemen, of the Borough of Sudbury in the County of Suffolk.

Mult gracious Sovereign,

X / E, your Majesty's most dutiful and leyal

V Subjects, beg Leave to express our Detectation and Abhorrence of the most unnatural Rebellion no ' fubfifting in your Majefty's Colonies in Ante ica, encouraged, we fear, by disaffected Perfons as well on this as the other Side of the Actuation who at the fame Time Leaft of the Liberty and Laws of the most excellent Constitution in the World, yet, mifled by Faction and supposed injured Rights, forget their natural Duty and Allegiance, and difown their Subjection to the Legislative Authority of this Kingdom, in Defiance of all Order and Government. These unprecedented Measures, subversive of every Civil Establishment, must excite the Indignation of every Friend to his Country, and, we are forry to fay it, call aloud for the decifive Exertions of your Majefty's Arms. In Times to critical, we think it our indiffentable Duty to profess our hearty Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Pamily and Government: Confiding in the Wisdom of your Majesty's Council, and the Spirit of Parliament, we prefume to hope, that a Period will foon he put to these Calamines. Amongst many of your faithful Subjects, we, deeply fenfible of the many ineilimable Bleffings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and happy Reign, most heartily and chearfully offer our best Services, assuring you, Sir, that in this and every Part of this-Kingdom where we have any Connection, we shall, at the Peril of our Lives and Fortunes, maintain, support, and desend, to the utmost of our Power, your Majesty's Crown and Government against all the secret or avowed Disturbers of the Public Peace. And we further hope and truft, that your Flects and Armies, with the Affiftance of Divine Providence, will foon chaffife, and bring back to their Duty and Ohedience, thefe deluded Persons, who may have dared to violate the Peace and good Order of your Majesty's Dominions in America.
