Many Particulars which their Lordships may wish to know I must at present take the Liberty of referring you to Mr. Dacres for; but as I am well convinced his Modesty will not permit him to say how great a Share he had in this Victory, give me Leave to assure you, that during both Actions nothing could be more pointedly good than his Conduct. I must also do the Justice the Officers and Seamen of this Fleet merit, by saying that every Person under my Command exerted themselves to act up to the Character of British Seamen.
