

St. James's, January 20, 1778.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, That, about Two of the Clock in the Morning of Sunday the 30th of November last past, a Person unknown attempted to take the Light of a Window out of a Ground Room in the House of Mr. John Alcock, at Skipton in the County of York, with an Intent to break into the same, but being discovered he made off without accomplishing his Design; and that, on Saturday Morning the 14th Day of December last past, Three Persons unknown did actually break into the said House, and had set open the Out-Doors, and the Beaufet Doors, in order to plunder the House, one of the said Persons having actually got hold of a Box containing the Servant-Boys Cloaths, by whose Stumbling the Family were alarmed, and the Three Persons made their Escape out of the House:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in attempting and breaking open the said House, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SUFFOLK.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Gentlemen of the Town of Skipton aforesaid do hereby promise a Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS out of the Money subscribed for detecting of Felons and Persons guilty of Burglary; and the said Mr. John Alcock doth also promise a further Reward of TWENTY GUINEAS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid; the said Rewards to be paid upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.
