St. James's, June 2.

The following Addresses having been transmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Buckinghamshire, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to the Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, have been presented to His Majesty: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Gentlemen of the County of Fermanagh, at Enniskillen assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Gentlemen of the County of Fermanagh, full of the strongest Feelings of Loyalty and Affection, beg Leave humbly to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Fidelity and Attachment to your Royal Person and Government; and that we will, with our Lives and Fortunes, vigorously support every Measure which may tend to assert the Rights of our happy Constitution, to secure the Dignity of your Crown, and to disappoint the Designs and punish the Perfidy of your Enemies.

County of Gal. } At the General Assizes and General Gaol Delivery held in and for the said County at the County-Hall in Galway, on the 9th Day of April, 1778.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Gentlemen of the County of Galway, impressed with Sentiments of the strongest Loyalty and Attachment to your Sacred Person and Family, beg Leave humbly to approach the Throne at this critical Period, which calls aloud for every Exertion of a loyal People to support your Majesty's Rights, and the Dignity and Honour of the Crown of these Realms.

We have beheld, with equal Amazement and Indignation, the Faith of Nations, and the most sacred Ties of Honour, violated by the French Ambassador's late insolent Message. Happy, Sir, would we be, that our restrained and limited Situation permitted us to give your Majesty Assistance equal to our Inclination; but, to the utmost of our Abilities, we are ready to stand forward in Defence of your Majesty's just Rights; and we humbly hope, that, under the Auspices of the glorious

Line of Brunswick. the Day will come, when the Zeal and Efforts of your Majesty's Subjects will meet with that Reward which the best of Kings can bestow on a grateful and devoted People.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Representatives in Parliament, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Limerick.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Limerick, beg Leave, in the present critical State of the Affairs of Europe, to assure your Majesty of our warmest Affection to your Person and Government.

We feel the utmost Indignation at the recent Insult offered to your Majesty's Crown by our natural and inveterate Enemies; we trust, however, that by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, and the Firmness and Unanimity of your faithful Subjects, every Attempt to disturb the Peace of your Majesty's Dominions, or encroach upon the Rights of your Empire, will be rendered ineffectual, and terminate only in the Disgrace of your Enemies.

Your Majesty may rely on a strenuous Exertion of our utmost Efforts in Support of the Rights of your Majesty's Crown, and the Dignity of the British Empire. And we lament that our Ability, under our present Circumstances, is not equal to our Zeal.

Dated at our County Court-house this 22d Day of April, 1778.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Gentlemen of the County of Armagh.

WE, the High Sheriff, Grand Jury and Gentlemen of the County of Armagh, filled with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Affection to the best of Princes, behold, with the utmost Indignation, the treacherous and unmanly Conduct of the French, who, concealing the ambitious Projects which they dare not avow, under the most solemn and repeated Assurances of Friendship, have at length discovered their hostile Intentions, by joining themselves to a revolted Part of your Majesty's Subjects; and by an open Declaration of their having entered into a formal Treaty with them, contrary to the clearest Principles of the Law of Nations, and which have been universally received in all civilized States.

In just Abhorrence of these Practices, we beg Leave, at this critical Conjuncture, humbly to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Zeal and Fidelity to your Royal Person and Government; and that we are ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to support the Rights of our happy Constitution, and the Dignity of your Crown, against all your Enemies.
