The King's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 25th Day of October 1776, to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st of December then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy. And whereas His Majesty was also pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 8th Day of November, 1776, to promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen, who might secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the 31st Day of December, 1776. And whereas His Majesty was likewise pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 15th Day of August last, to promise and declare, That every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should voluntarily enter himself to serve on Board any of His Majesty's Ships, on or before the 31st Day of October then next, should receive, as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of thirty Shillings each Man, to be paid in Manner thereby directed. To

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Nobility, Representatives, Clergy, Freeholders and Gentlemen, of the County of Waterford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, the High Sheriff, Nobility, Representatives, Clergy, Freeholders and Gentlemen, of the County of Waterford, actuated by the most sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, humbly beg Leave to express the grateful Sense we entertain of the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Reign.

At a Time when the Tranquility of your Majesty's Reign is threatened to be further disturbed by the insidious Designs of a Foreign Enemy, we should be wanting in Duty to the best of Princes, did we neglect to assure your Majesty of our unshaken Loyalty and Fidelity.

Conscious that our Rights can alone be secure under your Majesty's Illustrious House, we shall most cheerfully, with our Lives and Properties, stand forth in Defence of our happy Constitution, and your Majesty's Crown; and we trust, under Providence, that such effectual Measures will be taken, as will render all Attempts of your Majesty's Enemies against the Peace of your Majesty's Kingdoms vain and fruitless.

[ Signed by 233 Names. ]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Commonalty, of the Town of Carrickfergus, and of the County of the said Town.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs and Commonalty, of the Town of Carrickfergus, and of the County of the said Town, inheriting from our Ancestors a Spirit of Loyalty, and confirmed in it by Education and Habit, beg Leave, upon the present critical Occasion; humbly to approach the Throne, to assure your Majesty of our most hearty and unfeigned Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, and to the Honour of your Crown; and to express our Joy at the Prospect now opened to us of seeing your Majesty's Reign distinguished by a Removal of those Restraints, under which the Commerce of your Majesty's faithful Subjects of Ireland hath hitherto unfortunately laboured. Though placed in a Situation remote from your Majesty's Person, yet feeling most sensibly the Influence of your Royal Virtues, we should esteem ourselves criminal, if we omitted this Opportunity of testifying our Gratitude for the Blessings which we enjoy under your Majesty's Government. In a Time of common Danger, it is the Duty of every Subject of the Empire to offer his Assistance for the Defence of its just Rights; and we think it a Duty peculiarly incumbent on our Corporation, whose Sufferings and Services in the Cause of Constitutional Government have procured to it many signal Favours from your Majesty's Royal Progenitors, Monarchs of this Realm. In Testimony whereof, we have caused the Common Seal of our Corporation to be hereunto annexed, this 12th Day of May, 1778.

[ Signed by 220 Names. ]

Person and our happy Constitution, humbly beg Leave, in the present Situation of public Affairs, to approach your Majesty's Throne, and to assure your Majesty, that we are ready, with our Lives and Fortunes, to support the Honour of your Majesty's Crown and Government. Dated at the Council Chamber, Corke, this 10th of April 1778.
