East-India-House, June 23, 1779.

Whereas at a General Court of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East-Indies, held this Day, the following Motions were made, and unanimously agreed to, viz.

The United Company of Merchants of England, trading to the East-Indies, taking into their serious Consideration the very critical Situation of National Affairs at this Juncture, when these Kingdoms are under well-founded Apprehensions of an immediate Invasion from the inveterate Enemies of this Realm, and thinking that the Existence of the Constitution, and Commerce of Great Britain, depends upon the Superiority of its Naval Power to the now Combined Force of the House of Bourbon, do

Resolved,

That it is a Duty incumbent on all the Subjects of this Country, but more peculiarly on Great Commercial Societies, to make every possible Exertion to strengthen this most Important and Constitutional Defence.

Resolved,

That this Court do forthwith offer a Bounty of Three Guineas each to the first Two Thousand Able Seamen; Two Guineas each to the first Two Thousand Ordinary Seamen, and One Guinea and an Half each to the first Two Thousand Able bodied Landmen, who shall voluntarily enter themselves to serve on Board His Majesty's Fleet from and after this Twenty-third Day of June; and that the said respective Bounties be paid over and above all other Bounties whatsoever, and without Fee or Deduction.

Resolved,

That this Company, at their own Expence, and with all possible Dispatch, do cause to be built, Three Ships of War, of Seventy-four Guns each, with Masts and Yards, to be delivered to such Officer as His Majesty shall appoint to receive the same.

Resolved,

That a Committee be appointed to prepare and draw up an humble Address to His Majesty, to express our Duty and Affection; and to convey these Resolutions to the Throne.

And whereas, by reason of a Bye Law existing, the same could not be carried into such speedy Execution as the Wishes of the Company and the Urgency of the Case required; and therefore the Members of the said Court agreed, at their own Risk, to carry the said Resolutions into immediate Execution, and to wait the Indemnity of a future General Court; Notice is therefore hereby given, That a General Court of the said Company will be held, by Adjournment, at their House in Leadenhall-street, on Wednesday next, the 30th instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to consider the said Resolutions, and the most effectual Means of carrying the same into Execution.
