

General Post-Office, June 18, 1779.

GEORGE Barris Woodcock, late one of the Clerks in the Inland Department of this Office, having been detected in secreting and embezzling Letters, has absconded. He is about 17 Years of Age, tall and slim, rather fair Complexion, and wears his own Hair, of a light brown Colour, tied behind.

Whoever apprehends the said George Barris Woodcock, so that he may be brought to Justice, shall receive a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS.

By the Command of the Post-master General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

General Post Office, February 22, 1779.

THE Post Boy, carrying the Mail which was dispatched from this Office last Friday Night, was robbed by two Footpads with Crapes over their Faces, on Saturday Night at Ten o'Clock, at the Bottom of Hack Lane near Long Compton, between Enstone and Shipstone in Oxfordshire, of the whole Mail, containing the following Bags, viz. Warwick, Stratford on Avon, Shipston on Stour, Ledbury, Hereford, Bromsgrove, Worcester, Stone, Newcastle under Line, Macclesfield, Middlewich, Holms Chaple, Knutsford, Manchester, Stockport, Liverpool, Warington, Wigan, Preston, Blackburn, Lancaster-Kendall, Wolverhampton, Shrewsbury, Bridgnorth, Stafford, Shiffnal, Namptwich, Chester, Northport, Conway, St. Asaph, Bangor, Holyhead, and the Irish Mail.

The Persons, who committed this Robbery were small fixed Men; but it being a dark foggy Night, the Boy cannot give any further Description of them.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of the Persons who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or, if any Person, whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery whereby both or either of the Persons who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of both or either of the Parties, be intitled to the same Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty's most Gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-master General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

General Post-Office, January 19, 1779.

ON Saturday last the 16th Instant, about Six o'Clock in the Evening, the Post-Boy was attacked and robbed, at a Place called Priest's Bridge, about Four Miles North of Morpeth, of the whole Scotch Mail, and the Bags from Berwick, Belford, and Abwick, which should have arrived here this Morning, by Two Footpads, armed with Bludgeons, who stopped the Boy, cut the Mails from the Cart, and immediately conveyed the same into a Wood adjoining, of whom no further Description can be given from the Darkness of the Night.

Whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, both or either of the Persons who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending Highwaymen: Or if any Person, whether an Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby both or either of the Persons who committed the same may be apprehended and brought to Justice; such Discoverer will, upon Conviction of both or either of the Parties, be intitled to the same Reward of TWO HUNDRED

POUNDS, and will also receive His Majesty's most gracious Pardon:

By Command of the Postmaster-General,
Anth. Todd, Secretary.

Grosvenor-square, July 7, 1779.

WHEREAS, by an Act of Parliament passed the 3d Day of this Month, intituled, "An Act for augmenting the Militia," it is enacted, that from and after the passing thereof, if any Person or Persons, properly qualified according to the Laws now in Force, shall offer to His Majesty's Lieutenant of any County to raise One or more Company or Companies to be added to the Regiment or Battalion of any County or Riding, that it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Lieutenant to accept such Offers, and appoint Officers accordingly.

In Pursuance therefore of the said Act of Parliament, any Person or Persons properly qualified, and desirous of raising One or more Company or Companies to be added to either of the Regiments or Battalions of Militia of the West Riding of the County of York, City of York, and County of the same, or Ainsty of York, are desired to give Notice to His Majesty's Lieutenant of the said West Riding, City and County of the same, or Ainsty of York.

ROCKINGHAM.

County of Nottingham.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the last Session of Parliament, it is enacted, that if any Person or Persons, properly qualified according to the Laws now in Force, shall offer to His Majesty's Lieutenant of any County to raise one or more Company or Companies to be added to the Regiment or Battalion of any County or Riding, it shall and may be lawful for His Majesty's Lieutenant to accept such Offers, and to appoint Officers to command the same; and whereas it may be expedient to appoint a General Meeting of the County, in order to consult what Measures may be proper to be taken for the Service of the Publick, in the very critical Situation of this Country; I do hereby appoint a General Meeting to be held at the Blackmoor's Head at Nottingham, at Eleven o'Clock in the Morning, on the 22d Day of this instant July; and do earnestly request the Noblemen, Gentlemen, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County, to attend the said Meeting.

Exchequer,
July 13, 1779.
