St. James's, August 14.

THE following Address of the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, having been delivered to the Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, by Robert Lydfon Newcombe, Esq; Sheriff of the said County, has been presented to His Majesty: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon.

WE, your Majesty's loyal Subjects, the Sheriff, Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freeholders of the County of Devon, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty and Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family and Government; and finding ourselves called upon in the strongest Manner to unite in the Defence of all that is near and dear to us, we beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we shall not fail to give all the additional Increase to the Force of your Majesty's Arms that is in our Power, in the Defence of our Country; And should our Enemies be daring enough to make an Attempt to invade this Kingdom, we will be ready to assist in repelling such an Attack, and concur in every noble and animated Exertion, for the Welfare of your Majesty and your People.

Signed, by Direction of a Meeting of the said County, held at the Castle of Exeter, the Sixth Day of August, One thousand seven hundred and seventy-nine, Rt. Lydfon Newcombe, Sheriff.

The following Address of the Roman Catholick Inhabitants of the City of Kilkenny, having been presented to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, has by his Excellency been transmitted to the Lord Viscount Weymouth, One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To His Excellency John Earl of Buckinghamshire, Lord Lieutenant-General and General Governor of Ireland,

The humble Address of the Roman Catholick Inhabitants of the City of Kilkenny.

WE, the Roman Catholick Inhabitants of the City of Kilkenny, impressed with the warmest Sentiments of Loyalty, beg Leave to inform your Excellency, that we are gratefully sensible of the Indulgences which the Benignity of Majesty and the Mildness of an enlightened Age, have produced; and as we are satisfied that a Conviction of our Attachment to the present legal Establishment, as well as Principles of Humanity, have actuated the Legislature in our Behalf, we humbly request your Excellency will represent to His Majesty, that He shall never be deceived in the favourable Opinion entertained of us. We hold no religious Doctrines adverse to His Majesty's Government, or incompatible with the Interest of our Fellow-Subjects; and we pledge our Lives and Properties to your Excellency, that in the present Situation of Affairs, when this Country is threatened with a French Invasion, we will conduct ourselves in such a Manner, as will fully evince our Loyalty to His Majesty, and satisfy our Protestant Fellow-Subjects, that we are united with them in a Bond of mutual Interest and Affection, and that on this or any future Emergency, we will cheerfully take such active Part as shall be required of us, to convince all daring Invaders, that where the Honour and Glory of these Kingdoms are at Stake, we know no Distinction of Religion, but unite as British Subjects in Defence of His Majesty's Person and Government.

We beg Leave to request your Excellency's Patronage and Protection, which we desire no longer than our Actions shall correspond with these Professions of Duty and Attachment.

[Signed with 101 Names.]

Petersburgh, July 13. On Wednesday the Court removed to Peterhoff; and Friday, being the Anniversary of her Imperial Majesty's Accession, the Empress received the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Ministers; and on Saturday, the Name Day of the Great Duke, there was a Masquerade at Court, and the Gardens of Peterhoff were magnificently illuminated.

Berlin, July 25. On Friday last his Prussian Majesty, attended by Major-General Goertz, made a short Tour to the new-established Colonies in the Middle Marche of Brandenburg, and returned last Night to Potsdam in good Health.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 28th Day of July, 1779,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS His Majesty was graciously pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 25th Day of October, 1776, to promise and declare, That the Bounties of Five Pounds for every Able Seaman, and of Two Pounds Ten Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, fit for His Majesty's Service, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to every such Able and Ordinary Seaman, not above the Age of Fifty, nor under the Age of Eighteen Years, who should, on or before the 31st of December then following, enter themselves to serve in His Majesty's Royal Navy, either with the Captains or Lieutenants of His Majesty's Ships, or the Chief Officers on Board such Tenders as should be employed for raising Men for the Service of the Royal Navy: And whereas His Majesty was also pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 8th Day of November, 1776, to promise and declare, That a Reward of Two Pounds for every Able, and Thirty Shillings for every Ordinary Seaman, should be paid in the Manner thereby directed, to any Person who should discover any Seaman or Seamen who might secrete themselves, that so such Seaman or Seamen should be taken for His Majesty's said Service, by any of His Majesty's Sea-Officers employed for raising Men, on or before the 31st Day of December, 1776: And whereas His Majesty was likewise pleased, by His Royal Proclamation, bearing Date the 15th Day of August 1777, to promise and declare, That every Able-bodied Landman, not above the Age of Thirty-five, nor under the Age of Twenty Years, who should voluntarily enter himself to serve on Board any of His Majesty's Ships, on or before the 31st Day of October then next, should receive, as of His Majesty's Royal Bounty, the Sum of Thirty Shillings each Man, to be paid in Manner thereby directed: And whereas the Time limited by the said Proclamations, for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards, hath been prolonged and extended to the 31st Day of this instant July; and it being judged expedient for His Majesty's Service that the said Bounties and Rewards should be continued to be paid for some Time longer; His Majesty, with the Advice of His Privy-Council, doth therefore order, and it is hereby accordingly ordered, that the Time limited for Payment of the said Bounties and Rewards be prolonged and extended from the said 31st Day of this instant July to the 30th Day of September next, inclusive. — Whereof all Persons concerned are to take Notice, and govern themselves accordingly.

MAN

Steph. Cottrell.
