Pera of Constantinople, September 3.

ON the 18th of last Month the Tartar Deputies (Five in Number) arrived by Sea from Crimea and were conducted to a House prepared for them at a Village called Beicos, situated on the Canal. The President of the Council was sent the next Day to compliment them on their Arrival. On the 28th the Deputies, attended by the Officer who superintends their Household, waited on the Vizir's Lieutenant, and afterwards on the Master of the Ceremonies; and were then conducted to the Publick Audience of the Vizir, to whom they delivered their Credentials, and the Letters of Notification from Shahin Ghirai, Kan of the Tartars, with a National Declaration signed by the Chiefs of each Tribe, certifying that he was duly elected. The principal Deputy was placed on a Carpet spread at the Foot of the Sopha, on which the Vizir is seated, and the other Deputies on the Mats which cover the Floor; and were treated with Coffee and Sherbet. They were afterwards introduced to the Musti, and then to the Reis Effendi. On the 29th Suleiman Effendi, Chief of the Pursuivants, was appointed to carry to Shahin Ghirai Kan the Sabre, and Turban adorned with an Egrette; which is the ancient Form of Confirmation of the Tartar Kans.

The Grand Vizir Celebi Mehemmed was deposed on the 21st inst, and the next Day banished to Tenedos. He is succeeded by Seid Mehemmed, who is replaced by the President of the Imperial Treasury, whose Office is filled by a younger Brother of the present Vizir.

The Chief or Superintendent of the Mint is made Chief of the Pursuivants, in the Room of Suleiman Effendi, appointed to carry the Sabre and Turban to Shahin Ghirai Kan; and the Sultan's private Secretary succeeds to the Place of Superintendent of the Mint. The Pathaw of Aleppo, Izzet Achmet, was dismissed from his Post on the 30th, and also from his Rank of Pashaw. Abdi, Pashaw of Salonica, is appointed to the Pashawlick of Aleppo.

There have lately been frequent Fires in this Capital; and, in several Quarters, Trains of combustible Matter have been discovered, which were undoubtedly laid with Intention to burn the City.

Dresden, September 29. Tomorrow the Elector and Electoral Family will return from Pilnitz to this City for the Winter.

Hambourg, October 8. Advice was received here Yesterday from Ploen of the Death, on the 6th Instant, of her Serene Highness Princess Christina Irmgard, Dutchess Dowager of the last Reigning Duke Frederick Charles of Holstein Ploen, in the 69th Year of her Age.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 7th of October, 1779,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHILEAS His Majesty was pleased, by His Order in Council of the 24th of last Month, to direct, that no Person or Persons whatsoever should, at any Time during the Space of Two Months, to commence from the Date of the said Order, presume to transport out of this Kingdom, or carry Coastwise, any Plates of Copper, without Leave or Permission in that Behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council. And whereas it hath been represented to His Majesty at this Board, that the Continuance of the said Prohibition will be attended with Inconvenience and Detriment to the Persons concerned in the Trade and Manufacture of Copper in this Kingdom;—His Majesty, taking the same into Consideration, and being ever desirous to remove all Obstructions upon Trade, is hereby pleased, with the Advice of His
