Abram Roulet.*

February 25, 1780.

Notice is hereby given, that the Prize Money due to the Company belonging to the Hannah Privateer, of London, Captain Thomas Venture Commander, may receive their respective Shares of Prize Money arising from the Ship Le Pilote, any Friday Morning, between the Hours of Nine and One o'Clock, by applying to Thomas Porteus, No. 26, Lime-street.

Bermuda, August 5, 1779.

WHEREAS the Honourable Thomas Jones, Esquire, and others, Executors of the last Will and Testament of the Honourable Francis Jones, Esq; late of the Island of Bermuda, deceased, did, on the 10th Day of February, in the Year of our Lord 1778, file their Bill of Complaint in the Honourable the Court of Chancery for the said Island of Bermuda, setting forth, that the said Francis Jones did, in the Years of our Lord 1765 and 1767, lend to one certain Thomas Parsons, of the said Island, Gentleman, 1491l. 2s. 11d. Current Money of Bermuda; and as Security for the Repayment thereof took Mortgages upon certain Lands lying in Paggett's Parish in the said Island of Bermuda: That the Principal and Interest due on the said Mortgages amounted to 2681l. and upwards, which was double the real Value of the said Land; and that the said Thomas Parsons died in Parts beyond the Seas on or about the Year 1769 intestate. Since which Time no Heir or other Person had laid any Claim to the said Lands, nor could the Complainants, on the strictest Enquiry, learn of any Person, who either was or pretended to be Heir to the said Thomas Parsons.

Wherefore the Complainants prayed, that the Equity of the Redemption of the said Thomas Parsons, and his Heirs, in the said Lands may be foreclosed. And whereas; although the said Thomas Parsons was a Native of Bermuda, yet his Relations, if any, must be presumed to be in Great Britain, as the Father of the said Thomas Parsons came to Bermuda from thence, and the said Thomas Parsons himself was many Years a Merchant in the City of London.

Now Notice is hereby given, pursuant to a Rule or Order of the said Court for that Purpose made, that unless an Answer is filed to the said Bill on or before the 5th Day of August, which will be in the Year of our Lord 1780, by the Heir of the said Thomas Parsons deceased, or some other Person claiming a Right and Title in the said Lands under the said Thomas Parsons, the Equity of Redemption in the said mortgaged Premises will be decreed to be foreclosed agreeable to the Prayer of the said Bill.

WE, Anthon Diedrich Wilchen and Mathaeus Rodde, Senators, and at this present Time Judges of this Imperial and the Holy Roman Empire Free City of Lubeck, make known to all Men, especially to those whom it may concern, That before us in the Lower Court of Judicature personally appeared Andreas Christop Ahrens, for Johann Michael Croll and Son, and humbly represented, that in the Month of October, in the Year 1778, the Petitioners received a Bill of Loading of Caspar Felix and Son, in London, of a Cargo of 73 Chaldrons of Coals, and 21 Fodders of Lead, sent from Newcastle to Lubeck, the Insurance upon which they ordered immediately to be made here; this last Order for Insurance was accompanied by a Draft of 104l. Sterling, at Two and Half Usances, Order Daniel Vonder Hyde, and one for 57l. 9s. Sterling English to the same Order, at Two Usances, which two Bills the Petitioners (suspecting no Fraud, and on Account of many Circumstances too tedious to mention here could not expect) did without Hesitation accept, addressing them to Hamburg to C. A. Lorent and Am Ende; before the coming due of said Bills it was plainly proved, that neither a Firm of Caspar Felix and Son in London, nor Daniel von der Hyde, were existing, thus all had been contrived for a villainous Fraud, therefore the before-mentioned Lorent and Am Ende were prevailed upon not to pay the said Bills of 104l. and 57l. 9s. Sterling, but refuse them: The Petitioners have hitherto taken all imaginable Pains to discover these villainous Cheats, and bring them to condign Punishment, to effect which they have often had Hopes and Prospects; but as at last, notwithstanding all their Pains, that said iniquitous Affair seems as if it would never come to Light. Your Petitioners; although no one since has either demanded Payment, nor could under these Circumstances demand the same, would for their better Securities Sake and Peace of Mind, most humbly pray, by a Valien Curia here, as also in London and Hamburg affixed, and in the Foreign Papers inserted, a public Proclamation to cite and summons all such as think themselves intitled to any Right or Claim upon the Petitioners Johann Michael Croll and Son for the Bills of 104l. Sterling and 57l. 9s. Sterling, English, at Two and Half and Two Usances, Order Daniel Vonder Hyde, issued by Caspar Felix and Son, within a double Saxon Term to appear here in the Lower Court, plead and prosecute their Right with the Insinuation; That by not appearing, after the Expiration of said affixed Period, the said Bills will be declared null and void, and all and every Person or Persons are to be perpetually silent thereafter.

After your Lordship will have granted the prayed-for public Proclamation cum Termino of a double Saxon Period, we do cite, call upon, and summon all and every who dare venture to make any Demand on the Petitioners for the Bills issued by Caspar Felix and Son of London, for 104l. Sterling and 57l. 9s. Sterling, English, at Two and Half and Two Usances, to the Order of Daniel Vonder Hyde, accepted by the Petitioners, and addressed for Payment to C. A. Lorent and Am Ende, by these Presents, once, twice, three Times, also peremptory, that they at furthest on the 4th Day of March in the next following Year 1780, do appear here in the Lower Court, either personally or by Power of Attorney, and their pretended Right or Demand produce and exemplify; but, in case of Non-appearance, to expect that they, after the Expiration of the Time fixed, are not to be heard, but to be silent for ever; likewise the said Bills to be declared null and void. Thus done, under our Judicial Seal, this 29th of November, 1779.
