At a Time when FEVERS and COLDS, attended with SORE THROATS, particularly of the Putrid or Malignant Kind, are so very frequent, and prove fatal to such Numbers, it is much to be lamented that an almost infallible Remedy for these reigning Disorders in particular, and Fevers in general, should ever be neglected to be given. They are innocent as Milk, and operate in the most gentle, easy Manner, and with a little Perseverance in taking them, will restore Health almost imperceptibly, which is well known to many of the Faculty in the first Practice, as well as the great Numbers who have happily experienced their Efficacy, and found Relief, after all other Means had been tried without Success, as may be seen in the

Essay on their Virtues;

With Letters and Certificates of the many extraordinary Cures they have done;

Which is given gratis where the Drops are sold, and earnestly recommended to the Perusal of the Public in general, but more especially to every one who may be inclined to take these Drops, and have the least Doubt of their Sovereign Efficacy.

Mr. Sawier, a Gentleman of Bristol, in a Letter to the Printer, published in the Gazette, in Recommendation of these Drops, after several Years Experience of their surprising Efficacy, and before he even knew Dr. Norris, declares them "The greatest Medical Blessing the World ever received."

The same Gentleman, in a Letter to Dr. Norris, on the Virtues and Efficacy of these Drops for Fevers, says, that in the Course of more than Seven Years, not one Instance came to his Knowledge of a Patient doing otherwise than well, who made a fair Trial of them.

They are sold at Dr. Norris's, in New Bridge-street, Blackfriars; and, by his Appointment, by Mess. Fielding and Walker, Pater-noster-row; Mr. Ker, at the Carolina Coffee-house, Birchin-lane; Mr. Davenhill, No. 13, Cornhill; Mr. Keatly, No. 46, Fleet-street; Mess. Byfield and Hawksworth, Charing-cross; Mr. Burrell, No. 133, New Bond-street; Mr. Satchell, No. 4, Northumberland-street, Strand; and Mr. Southern, St. James's-street: Also by Mess.
