Pb. Stephens.

St. James's, November 18, 1780.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Sunday the 15th Day of October last, the Dwelling-house of Mr. Thomas Dickins, Innholder, at Rainham in the County of Norfolk, was forcibly entered by about Fourteen Men, supposed to be Smugglers, who broke open every Door therein which they found locked, and swore they would take whatever Money they could find in the House, and that they would murder the said Mr. Dickins, whom they searched for with that Intent, but not meeting with him, they departed, swearing that they would murder him the first Opportunity:

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in entering the said House, breaking open the Doors, and the other daring and outrageous Proceedings above-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them, who will discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a farther Encouragement, His Majesty is hereby pleased to offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person who shall apprehend, or cause to be apprehended, any one or more of the Persons concerned in the Offences above-mentioned, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury upon the Conviction of any one or more of the said Offenders.
