

to be allowed to take their Bedding with them into the Transports.

Answer. Granted.

Art. III. That the Corsicans, Greeks, &c. are to be transported to Leghorn, and likewise victualled out of the Stores of the Garrison at the usual Allowance: The Transports at the Expence of England.

Answer. Granted.

Art. IV. That the General thinks that the Officers should follow the Fate of their Men, and therefore will not permit any Officer to go Home by Land, but those whose Health requires it: That his own will not admit of a long Sea Voyage, and therefore he hopes the Duke de Crillon will allow him and his Suite to go to Marseilles, and from thence to England; for which Purpose he has the King of France's Passport.

Answer. Granted.

Art. V. That the Duke de Crillon may depend upon it, the Garrison of Fort St. Philip's shall not serve during the War, unless they are regularly exchanged, or a Cartel settled betwixt the Belligerent Powers, which may liberate them from the Obligations of not serving during the War.

Answer. The Confidence which I have in the Honour of all the Officers of the Garrison of St. Philip does not suffer me to doubt of their keeping their Promise not to serve against Spain and her Allies, until they have been exchanged by Spain, either Man for Man, or by Means of a Cartel, in case any should be established by their Catholic and Britannic Majesties, for the Officers shall be Prisoners of War on their Parole of Honour, given in Writing under their Hands; with Regard to the Soldiers, a List of their Names must be made out, their Officers shall explain to them the Obligation they have contracted of not serving during the War, if they have been exchanged, and shall warn them of the Penalty of Death they will be punished with, if guilty of breaking this Obligation.

Art. VI. That the Duke de Crillon's known Humanity leaves General Murray no Doubt that his Excellency will be happy to allow Vegetables, and every possible Refreshment, to be bought in the Markets of the Island, which can contribute to the Recovery of the Sick of the Garrison.

Answer. Granted.

Art. VII. That he has as little Doubt that his Excellency's Generosity will not admit of allowing the Officers, Soldiers, and Artificers of the Garrison, to be plundered of their Baggage, and maltreated by the besieging Army; for which Purpose he proposes to put the Duke de Crillon immediately in Possession of Marlbro's, Charles Fort, Queen's Redoubt, and the Kane Lunette.

Answer. Granted.

Art. VIII. That the English Garrison shall remain possessed of the other Out-works till the Day they embark; and that no Insults may be offered them by the Spanish Soldiers.

Answer. The whole Garrison shall early Tomorrow Morning quit the Place, to be conducted to Alcor, where they shall remain till they are embarked, and every Attention shall be paid them, which their Defence and Valour deserve.

Art. IX. Hostages to be delivered on both Sides for the faithful Performance of the preceding Articles.

Answer. In consequence of the 2d and 3d preceding Articles, which treat of the Transports that are to be furnished by Spain, his Excellency General Murray shall name some principal Officers, who shall remain as Hostages till the Return of the said Transports.

SIR,

FROM the extraordinary Increase of the Sick in the Garrison, and the little Progress we make in reducing that Evil, we judge it necessary, both on Account of the Public Service, as well as our
