SIR MUST defire you will please to acquaint their Lordships, that so twithstanding the Disposition had made of His Majesty's Fleet under my Comnand, which were stationed to Windward of the rench Islands in a Line stretching from the Latitude f Defiada to the Latitude of St. Vincent's, with a ine of Frigates to Windward, which their Lordhips may perceive, by the Disposition of the Fleet have the Honour to enclose, and which Disposition as thought by every Officer of the Fleet to be such to render it impossible for any Convoy bound to e French Islands to escape, yet notwithstanding the igilance of every Captain and Officer, the Enemy Orginal Means to escape by making the Island of Desiada, and creeping close under Guadaloupe and Dominique, they arrived fase in the Bay of Fortloyal on the 20th and 21st of March. Information having been given me of this unlucky vent, I thought it my. Duty to return to the Bay of Fros Islet, St. Lucia, where I had ordered the Storenips, Victuallers, and Trade bound to Jamaica to endezvous. On thy Arrival in that Bay every Dispatch possible

On my Arrival in that Bay every Dispatch possible was made in resitting the Fleet, and taking in Stores and Provisions to Five Montas of all Species for the whole Fleet. A watchful Eye being kept the whole Time on the French Fleet in the Bay of Fort-Royal, as I knew that Count de Grasse would halten the resitting his Fleet, and take the first Opportunity of proceeding to the Flace of his Destination.

On the 5th of April I received Intelligence that the Enemy were embarking their Troops on Board the Ships of War, and concluded they intended to fail in a very few Days. Captain Byron of the Andromache, an active.
