

Force for our internal Defence, upon the most Constitutional Principles; which may enable your Majesty to make the more powerful Efforts for maintaining the Honor of your Crown, and the Public Interests Abroad.

It is with inexpressible Pleasure that we see your Majesty thus confiding in the Zeal, Spirit and Loyalty of your People; and we should ill deserve your paternal Affection and Confidence, if we did not adopt the Measures so wisely recommended, with the most chearful Alacrity and the most lively Gratitude.

The Wisdom of this spirited and salutary Measure does Honour to your Majesty's Councils; in Obedience to which, your loyal Subjects of this Town will, with all possible Duty and Earnestness, expedite and fulfil your gracious Intentions.

We seize with Pleasure this Opportunity to express to your Majesty the high Hopes we entertain from the great and distinguished Abilities of your Majesty's Ministers, and the Confidence we place in their active Zeal for your Service, and in the Wisdom and Vigour of their Measures.

The peculiar Exigencies of the Times demand every Exertion; and we are happy to assure your Majesty, that our Zeal and Loyalty keep Pace with them. Happy are we likewise to view the pleasing Prospect of that Unanimity so necessary to give them Stability and Firmness; and happy shall we be to see these Nations again shine forth with that Lustre, which has distinguished them for Ages past. Though surrounded by many and powerful Enemies, your loyal People here are unanimous to repel them, and trust the Giver of all Victory will crown your Majesty's Arms with deserved Success, and enable your Majesty to perfect the Wishes of your Heart, and to procure to your Empire the Blessing of a permanent and honorable Peace.

Long may your Majesty reign the Guardian of an united People; long may those benevolent Beams shine forth, which have distinguished your Royal House, and are so happily descriptive in yourself, whose every Endeavour is to conciliate the Affections and attain the Confidence of your faithful Subjects.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us to offer to your Majesty our most grateful Thanks, amidst the general Acclamations, for the total Change in your Majesty's Ministers, and for selecting those whose great and distinguished Abilities are equal to the arduous Task.

Anxious for a Reconciliation with America, we have now the pleasing Prospect that such a desirable Object may be soon accomplished, and our languishing Commerce again be restored to it's former State: This, with the excellent Example of Economy set us by your Majesty, joined with the united Efforts of your People, will enable us to support a War against our combined Enemies, until the Blessings of a general Peace can be restored with Safety and Honour to this Kingdom.

Once more we beg Leave to repeat our sincere Assurances of Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty, and our ardent Wishes for the Success of those Plans which your Majesty's Councils may form for recovering our ancient envied and happy Situation.

[Signed by 141 Persons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the sincerest Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and the highest Veneration for the Principles of our excellent Constitution, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgesses of the Borough of Doncaster, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Expressions of Gratitude to your Majesty for having graciously complied with the Wishes of your People, by calling to your Majesty's Councils Men who are the avowed Opposers of Corruption, and on whose Integrity, Abilities and Activity, we have the most firm Reliance, either for the Conduct of a vigorous and effectual War, or the speediest Establishment of (what is much more to be wished) an honourable Peace.

We return our sincere Thanks to your Majesty for your anxious Desire to alleviate the Burthens of your People, by recommending to Parliament a general Plan of Economy in the Expenditure of Publick Money, and for shewing in your own Royal Person a conspicuous and truly laudable Example, in the proposed Reduction of your Civil Establishment: Such Conduct on the Part of the Sovereign cannot fail in uniting the People to support with Zeal the Dignity of the Crown, and to promote, to the utmost of their Power, the Interest and Prosperity of all your Majesty's Dominions. In Witness whereof we have, this Fifteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, caused our Common Seal to be hereunto set and affixed.

The King was this Day pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on Abraham Pitches, Esq; Sheriff of the County of Surry.
