THE Creditors who have proved their Debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued against Robert Pritchett, of Oxford-street in the Parish of St. Mary le Bone in the County of Middlesex, Haberdasher, Draler and Chapman; are desired to meet the Attorneys of his Estate and Effects, on Thursday next; at Six of the Clock in the Afternoon, at the Half Moon Tavern in Cheap-side, in order to assent to or dissent from their commencing, prosecuting, or defending, any Suit or Suits at Law or in Equity concerning the said Bankrupt's Estate and Effects; or to their compounding, submitting to Arbitration, or otherwise agreeing, any Matter or Thing relating thereto; and on other special Affairs.

Dunbar, April 27, 1782.

Notice to the Creditors of James Hindmarsh, formerly Inn-keeper at Be'ntonford in the County of Haddington, North Britain; as likewise to the sundry Debtors to the Trustees for these Creditors.

A Meeting of the said James Hindmarsh's Creditors, called by Advertisements in the News-papers, was held at Dunbar on the 13th of April, 1782; at which John Tait and Alexander Sawers, Writers in Dunbar, were appointed as Agents to collect the whole outstanding Debts due to the Trustess, and, if needful, to prosecute for Payment without Delay; as also to draw up a Scheme of Division of the Funds which shall be made effectual, in order that the Creditors in Scotland may be paid their Dividends of that Fund at the Term of Whitsunday first. But it was recommended to Messrs. Tait and Sawers to set aside and retain the Dividends corresponding to the Sums for which the English Creditors lodged Claims at the first Meeting, until such Times as these English Creditors shall render an Account of the Prices of certain Candles and Hoses, and satisfy them of the Justice of the Claims, and of a legal Title to receive such Dividends, particularly such as were claimed by William Luke and Elizabeth Hindmarsh, Mr. Collingwood Forrester, and Ann Barton; also that they should cause to be inserted in the London Gazette and in the Newcastle News-papers, an Advertisement, requiring these Creditors to give such Satisfaction, and shew such Titles, between and the 1st Day of July next; with Certification, that in case these English Creditors fail to do so, they will be cut off from any Dividend of the Funds of the Bankrupt, and that the same, after the Expiry of that Day, will immediately be divided amongst the Scots Creditors, which, in that Event, the said Agents are hereby authorized to do.

Of all which this Intimation, in Terms of the said Instructions, is given by John Tait.

Alex. Sawers.

Notice to the Creditors of Archibald Torrance and Co. Merchants in Glasgow, and Archibald Torrance, Merchant, as an Individual,
