St. James's, June 11.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, has been presented to the King by Henry Penton and Lovell Stanhope, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

FULLY sensible of the many Blessings this Country has received, and still enjoys, under the happy Auspices of your Illustrious House, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Commonalty of the City of Winchester, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Expressions of Gratitude for the same, and with the most earnest Assurances of our inviolable Attachment to the Interests and Security of your Majesty's Crown and Person.

It is with the greatest Pleasure we take this Opportunity, with Hearts full of the most sincere Joy, to congratulate your Majesty upon the great and signal Successes obtained by your Majesty's Arms in the East Indies, and more particularly by that glorious and memorable Victory lately gained over the French Fleet in the West Indies by Sir George Brydges Rodney; in which Engagement the great and able Conduct of the Commander, as well as the Valour and personal Bravery of all the Officers and Men, must ever be the Subject of our Praise and Thankfulness.

And we doubt not, but that, under the Divine Providence, the Efforts of our enraged Enemies will be frustrated, through the distinguished Abilities and Activity of your Majesty's Ministers, (in whom we place the highest Confidence) the Courage and Conduct of your Commanders, and the Intrepidity of your Forces: And above all we hope and trust, through the same Divine Providence, that a perfect Harmony and Union may reign in your Majesty's Councils, and subsist amongst all your Subjects.

In Testimony whereof we have caused our Common Seal to be hereto affixed, the Thirtieth Day of May, in the Twenty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City and Suburbs of Winchester, has been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH the sincerest Attachment to your Royal Person and Family, and with the highest Veneration for the excellent Constitution of our Country, we, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the City and Suburbs of Winchester, in Guildhall assembled, beg Leave to approach the Throne with the warmest Expressions of Gratitude to your Majesty, for having called to your Majesty's Councils Men in whose Abilities, Diligence and Integrity we confide, and to whom we look for the Restoration of the Blessings of Peace and good Government.

We return our unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's most generous Disposition to alleviate the Burthens of an extensive War by your paternal Example, and for your Recommendation of an effectual Plan of Economy through all the Branches of Public Expenditure; and we feel the highest Satisfaction in your Majesty's Assurance, that your Majesty has no Reserves with your People: So patriotic a Declaration from our Sovereign cannot fail to establish the most perfect Harmony and Unanimity, to confirm the Dignity of the Crown of Great Britain, and effectually to promote the Interest and Prosperity of all your Majesty's Dominions.

Permit us, Sire, to add our warmest and most sincere Congratulations to your Majesty on the late very signal and important Victories of your Majesty's Arms in different Parts of the Globe.
