

We likewise beg Leave to express our sincere Acknowledgements for the gracious Instance of your Majesty's Benignity and paternal Affection to your Subjects, in proposing a Reform of your Majesty's Civil Establishment, in order to alleviate the Burthens under which they labour.

We are particularly happy to have this Opportunity of congratulating your Majesty on the very signal Successes that have lately attended your Majesty's Arms, which, seconded by the Wisdom of your Majesty's Councils, we hope may contribute to the happy Restoration of a general Peace.

Given under the Common Seal of the Mayor and Commonalty of the said City, the 22d Day of May, in the Twenty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the Borough of Leicester, has been presented to the King by John Darker, Esq; One of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

May it please your Majesty,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs and Burgeses of the ancient Borough of Leicester, beg Leave to approach the Throne, and offer our most sincere Congratulations on the late Successes of your Majesty's Arms both in the East and West Indies.

At the same Time that we are impressed with the highest Sense of Gratitude, that, under the Divine Providence, so unparalled a Victory should be gained by your Majesty's ever-honoured Admiral Sir George Rodney, we wish to express our warmest Approbation, not only of Sir Samuel Hood, and the other Commanders, but likewise of all the inferior Seamen, who have so nobly distinguished themselves in Defence of your Majesty's Subjects, your Dominions and Government.

It is our most earnest Wish and Prayer, that the same Success may attend your Majesty's Arms in every Quarter of the Globe; and that your Fleets and Armies, having terminated the War with Conquest and with Glory, may enable your Majesty to enjoy the Blessings of a speedy, honourable, and lasting Peace.

Given under our Common Seal, the Thirteenth Day of May, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two.

Thomas Barwell, Mayor.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeses of the Borough of Newport, has been presented to the King by the Reverend Mr. Holmes, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Chief Burgeses of the Borough of Newport in the Isle of Wight, assembled in the Guildhall of the said Borough.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to address your Majesty, to testify our most sincere and zealous Attachment to your Royal Person, Family and Government, and to return our most grateful Acknowledgements for that Instance of Wisdom and paternal Regard for the Welfare of your People, in listening to their Wishes, so eminently manifested by your late Selection of Ministers.

We beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the signal and important Successes of your Majesty's Arms in the different Quarters of the World; and to return our warmest and animated Thanks to your Majesty for the Marks of Honor conferred on your galliant Officers.

Permit us likewise, most gracious Sovereign, to express our humble Thanks for your Majesty's most benign Concern for this Island, in appointing to the Government thereof the Head of a Family, remarkable at all Times for their Constitutional Conduct, and their zealous Attachment to the most Illustrious House of Brunswick.

In Witness whereof we have, this Fourth Day of June, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty-two, caused our Common Seal to be hereunto set and affixed.
