

The Addresses of the Irish Parliament having disclaimed any Power or Authority, of any Sort whatsoever, in the Parliament of Great Britain over this Realm, we shall consider an unqualified and unconditional Repeal of the Statute the Sixth of George the First, by the British Parliament, made in Pursuance of the said Addresses, a complete Renunciation of a Principle hostile to the Rights of Ireland, and of all the Claims contained in the said Statute; and as such we will accept it and deem it satisfactory. Thus united by the sacred Bond of Freedom, we request our gracious Sovereign to assure our Sister Kingdom, that we will be Sharers in her Fate, standing or falling with the British Empire.

We humbly beg Leave to express our Gratitude for the Appointment of his Grace the Duke of Portland to the Government of Ireland. Prevented by Situation from enjoying the Presence of our benevolent Sovereign, we rejoice in a Viceroy, whose Character assures us that he will faithfully discharge the Duties of his Station.

The Economy and Retrenchment which your Majesty has been graciously pleased both to recommend and practise, will, we humbly hope, be extended to Ireland. Should a more equal Representation of the People be also adopted, our Prosperity would be for ever secured, and your Majesty's Reign most honorably distinguished in the Annals of Mankind.

We rejoice in the great and signal Success of your Majesty's Arms: Every Enemy must yield to the Efforts of a great, a brave, a free, and an united People. Your Majesty's Choice of those whom you have entrusted with the Administration of Public Affairs, gives us the most heart-felt Satisfaction; Public Confidence is revived; and we doubt not but your Majesty's Crown and Empire will speedily be raised to the highest Pinnacle of Human Glory.

We have ever beheld with Admiration your Majesty's domestic Virtues. May your Majesty, and the truly great and amiable Partner of your Throne, long, long live to bless each other: May the Offspring of your happy Union reward your parental Fondness, by a Display of every Grace and every Virtue: And when, at length, the immutable Law of Nature shall demand that Tribute, which even Kings must pay, may your mourning Subjects with one Voice lament, that the great, the benevolent Father of His People is no more.
