To Legatees.

MR. John Brain, late of Rainford in the County of Lancaster, Yeoman, having devised and bequeathed his Estates Real and Personal, after the Decease of his Wife, equally amongst his own and his Wife's Brothers and Sisters, or their lawful Representatives; and as some of such Brothers and Sisters, or their Representatives, are supposed to be Residents in different Parts of the Kingdom, remote from Rainford, and may not as yet have heard of the Death of Mr. Brain's Wife, the Administrator judges it proper to advise them of such Event, and requests that they will immediately apply, by Letter, to Sudell and Blackstock, Attornies in Liverpool, that an equal Distribution may be forthwith made of the Testator's Effects.

IF John Hardman, who about Twenty Years ago went to America as a Factor, or James Hardman, who was an Apprentice to a Crachmaker in London, (the Sons of John Hardman, late of Long-acre, London, Manchester Warehouseman, deceased) will apply to Mr. Jones, Attorney, in Manchester in the County of Lancaster, they may hear of something to their Advantage: But if they, or either of them, be dead, and any Person or Persons will inform the said Mr. Jones when and where they respectively died, such Person or Persons shall be handsomely paid for their Trouble.

WHEREAS there is great Reason to believe that John Williamson, formerly Purser of the London East Indiaman, Captain Daniel Webb, but afterwards in His Majesty's Service as Secretary to Lieutenant-General Vaughan in the Expedition against the Island of Saint Eustatius, and who died a few Days after its Surrender, was, at the Time of his Death, possessed of or entitled to Monies and Effects to a very considerable Amount, in the Hands or Care of some Person or Persons whom his Executor has not been able to discover: And whereas it is apprehended that the said John Williamson was also, at the Time of his Death, legally entitled to one or more Freehold Estates in the Kingdom of Ireland: The said Executor of the said John Williamson doth therefore hereby offer unto any Person or Persons who shall discover or make known to him the said Executor, in whose Possession or Care any Monies or Effects of the said John Williamson are deposited, so that the same shall be recovered or received by him; or shall discover any Freehold or other Estates which the said John Williamson was at his Decease entitled to, either in Ireland or elsewhere, so that Possession thereof may be obtained by the said Executor, under and by Virtue of the Will of the said John Williamson; a Proportion of all such Monies or Effects, and of the Value of such Estates, at and after the Rate of 25 l. per Cent upon the Money or Effects, and the Value of such Estates which shall be actually received, or of which Possession shall be actually obtained by the said Executor, by Means of the Information and Assistance which shall be given him by such Person or Persons.

All Persons who can give the Information above requested are desired to apply either to Mr. Johnson, of Lawrenco-lane, London, Lateman, the Executor; or to Mr. Fols, of Gough-square, Fleet-street, London, his Solicitor.

January 20, 1783.

THE Partnership between Mess. Quilter and Keating, of Walbrook, London, Attornies at Law, is this Day dissolved by mutual Consent. All Matters of Account respecting the said Partnership are to be settled by Mr. Quilter, in Walbrook.

James Rumball Quilter.
Wm. Keating.
