

sent Uncertainty of political Principle, and ambiguous Circumstances of the Time, humbly approach the Throne, with Assurances of our firm and inviolate Attachment to your Person, Family, and Government.

We have long watched, with Attention and Uneasiness, the Machinations of a dangerous Coalition, and saw, with particular Alarm, the rapid Progress of a late India Bill, which menaced an immediate Derangement to our venerable and unequalled Constitution, and threatened the Destruction of the most sacred Security in your Majesty's Dominions.

Happy were we to find, that one Branch of the Legislature retained Virtue and Vigour enough to impede the Career of so imperious an Attack: And we heartily thank you, Sir, for the wise and well-timed Interference of your Prerogative, in dismissing from your Councils Men of so pernicious a Principle.

Long may your Majesty continue the Head of our inestimable Form of Government; for the Preservation of which, in the same Purity we received it from our Ancestors, our best Exertions shall be employed; convinced that therein are intimately connected the Subjects Liberty and the Crown's Prerogative.

[Signed by 196 Persons.]

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town of Ipswich, has been presented to the King by Barne Barne, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Dunwich, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Ipswich, in the County of Suffolk, in Great Court assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IMpressed with an awful Sense of the Dangers which surround us, feeling for ourselves and our Posterity, we approach your Throne with Sentiments becoming your Majesty's loyal Subjects, at so alarming a Crisis.

It was with great Concern we beheld your Majesty's late Ministers persevering in a Measure which, in our Judgments, tended equally to encroach on the Rights of your Majesty's Crown; to annihilate the Chartered Rights of the East India Company, and to raise a new Power unknown to this free Government, and highly inimical to its Safety.

As this dangerous Measure was so warmly and strenuously supported by your Majesty's late Ministers, we cannot but heartily rejoice in their Dismission, and humbly thank your Majesty for exerting your Prerogative in a Manner so salutary and constitutional, and calling to your Councils those Persons, on whose constitutional Principles and distinguished Abilities we place the most perfect Reliance.

We trust the violent and daring Resolutions, which have been carried by a dangerous Combination of Power, will not deter your Majesty from the just Exercise of your Prerogative whenever the Situation of your faithful Subjects shall require it; and we doubt not, that, in the well-formed Legislation of this Kingdom, there will ever be found some Branch ready to defend the Rights and Liberties of the People, and to preserve inviolate the Faith and Honor of Parliamentary Engagements.

Having a most grateful Sense of the constant Solicitude your Majesty shews to promote the true Interest and Happiness of all your Subjects, and to preserve inviolate our most excellent Constitution, we pray that you may long reign in Peace, over a free, an happy, and united Nation.

Given under our Common Seal, the Twenty-first Day of January, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.
