Whitehall, February 6, 1784.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented to the King That on or about the 16th Day of November last, Alexander Davon, late Purser's Steward of His Majesty's Sloop the Wasp, was most inhumanly murdered by some Person or Persons unknown, but who, from various Circumstances, are supposed to be Smugglers, the dead Body having been found in the Harbour of Dover, at low Water, several Days afterwards.

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

And, as a further Encouragement, His Majesty is also pleased to promise a Reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid by the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, upon the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders.

SYDNEY

Whitehall, January 31, 1784.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That on the 15th of December last, Captain Gregory, of His Majesty's Tenth Regiment of Light Dragoons, as he was employed with a Party in the Assistance of an Officer of His Majesty's Excise, in the Search after some Contraband Goods in Crumborne Chase in the County of Dorset, was fired upon by some Person or Persons unknown, and wounded in the Shoulder:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in firing on Captain Gregory as before-mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any One of them, (except the Person who actually fired) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of Excise do hereby promise a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery, (except as before-mentioned) to be paid by their Secretary on Conviction of the Offenders.

J. Filher, Sec.

Whitehall, January 29, 1784.

WHEREAS it has been humbly represented to the King, That there is great Reason to suspect that the following Vessels were wilfully lost, with a View to defraud the Underwriters, viz.

The Brothers, Captain Heastie, bound on a Voyage from Clyde to Quebec, lost on the Coast of Newfoundland; in June, 1782.

The Peggy, Captain Whyte, from Clyde to Guernsey, lost on the Coast of Ireland, in March last.

The New York, Captain Fortay, from Clyde to New York, lost on one of the Capes of the Delaware in October last:—And

The Endeavour, Captain Robertson, from Clyde to Halifax, in 1781, attempted to be sunk on the Coast of America, but taken Possession of by a Privateer before the went down.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who gave the Orders for wilfully losing either of the said Ships, is hereby pleased to promise His Most Gracious Pardon to any of the Officers or Crews, or to any One of the Parties concerned therein, who will give Information against the Person or Persons giving such Orders as above-mentioned, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Underwriters do hereby offer a Reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS to any Person or Persons making such Discovery as aforesaid, to be paid on the Conviction of any one or more of the Offenders, by Mr. Robert Hunter, of King's Arms Yard, Coleman Street.
