recign in your Majesty's Councils, free from all Corruption and ambitious Faction.

Given under our Common Seal in our Council-Chamber, this Eleventh Day of February, in the Year of our Lord, 1784.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailists' and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Robert Spencer, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majetty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majetty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble and dutiful Address of the Mayor, Bailiss, and Commonalty of the City of Oxford, in Common Council assembled.

Mpressed with the warmest Sentiments of Gratitude for the many Bleffings we enjoy under our Majesty's mild and gracious Government, and uninfluenced by any Motive or Consideration whatever but the Welfare and Prosperity of our Country, we beg Leavesto approach your Majesty with our most-cordial Thanks for your Majetty's late Goodness and Wisdom in removing from your Councils those Ministers, whose Conduct, in our Opinion, had so strongly marked a Disposition to invade the facred Rights and Privileges of the Crown, and endanger the Liberties of their Fellow Subjects: At the same Time we intreat your Majefly to accept our hearty Congratulations upon the Appointment of a Ministry, who, we have Reason to believe, are equal in Ability and Virtue to the important Trust they have undertaken; and in every Respect deserving the Considence of the People at large, so generally bestowed upon them. We take the Liberty of affuring your Majesty we shall ever be ready to support the Constiiutional Exercise of all your Royal Prerogatives; and that we will not cease to implore the Blessing of Almighty God upon a Prince, whose exemplary Life and Character have so justly rendered Him the Object of universal Veneration and Esteem.

Given under our Common Seal, at our Council Chamber in Oxford, this Eleventh Day of February, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The Two following Addresses having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydnty, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, have by his Lordship been presented to the King: Which Addresses His Majesty has been pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

E, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Justice, divers Burgestes, Principal Inhabitants, and Tradesmen of the Borough of Devizes, beg Leave to approach your Majesty with full Assurances of our most cordial Attachment to your Person and Government, and our Reverence for the Constitution as established by the glorious Revolution.

We beg Leave to make our most sincere Thanks to your Majesty for the late Exercise of your Royal Prerogative, in a Mauner so constitutional, and so evidently intended for the Good and Safety of your Subjects; assuring your Majesty, that we shall or all Occasions be ready to use every Exertion, and to contribute the utmost in our Power to support your Majesty's just Rights, and the true Interest, Honour and Dignity of your Crown.

We beg Leave to thank your Majesty for having removed your late Ministers, and having appointed others, who we are persuaded possess the Confidence of your Subjects: And we assure your Majesty of our Resolution to unite in the Support of your Royal Prerogative and our happy Constitution.

May your Majesty long reign over your loyal and faithful Subjects.

[Signed by 123 Persons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty. The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

E your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Town and Port of Hythe, beg Leave, in the present critical and distracted State of Affairs, to assure your Majesty of our most unseigned Affection to your Royal Person and Government, and unalterable Attachment to the free Constitution of this Country.

we have beheld with the deepest Concern an Attempt made by your late Ministers (in a Bill to correct Abuses in India) to acquire a Power, that must eventually have endangered the very Existence of the Constitution: We therefore thank your Majesty for your paternal Care in the Removal of those Ministers.

We are fully perfuaded, that the Powers with which your Majesty is constitutionally invested are united with the Freedom and Happiness of your People; and we will always zealously support such an Exercise of them, as may give Stability to your Majesty's Government, and Prosperity to your Kingdoms.

[Signed by 124 Persons.]

The Three following Addresses were presented to the King by Henry Duncombe, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of York, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York, in Common Council affembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

E, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgesses of the Borough of Leeds, in the County of York, in Common Council assembled, hold it our Duty,
at this alarming Juncture, to express our Affection to your Royal Person and Government, and our ardent Attachment to the Constitution of this Kingdom.

We beg to offer our faithful Affurances to your Majesty, that we will support your Majesty in such legal Exercise of the Prerogative of your Crown, as may be necessary to insure Stability to your Government, and Security to your People.

Given under our Common Seal, the 7th Day of February, in the Year of our Lord, One thoufand feven hundred and eighty-four.

By Order of Court,
Tho. Barflow, Common Clerk.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

E, your Majesty's loyal, and dutiful Sbujects, Inhabitants of the Borough of Leeds, at a Time when the Animolities of Parties seem to endanger a Constitution which we have in the highest Veneration, hold it our Duty in this Man-
