The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 14, to Tuesday February 17, 1784.

Carlton-House, February 9.

HIS Royal Highness the Prince of Wales will have a Levee on Saturday Se'nnight, the 21st Instant, and afterwards on the First Saturday in every Month, during the Sitting of Parliament.

Carlton-House, February 13.

The Prince of Wales has been pleased to make the following Appointments in His Royal Highness's Household, viz.

Colonel Hulke, Comptroller of the Household.
Colonel Stevens and Lieutenant-Colonel St. Leger, Grooms of the Bed-chamber.
Major Churchill and the Honourable Captain Ludlow, Equerries.

St. James's, February 17.

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen and Citizens of the City of Bath, has been presented to the King by Abel Moysey, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Bath.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Bath, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your Throne with the warmest Assurances of Attachment to your Royal Person, and Zeal for your Government.

It is with the greatest Satisfaction that we have seen the unconstitutional Attempts of your Majesty's late Ministers to deprive a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights, and to introduce into our free Government, a new and formidable executive Power, defeated by the wise and happy Interference of one Branch of the Legislature. And we humbly thank your Majesty for having shewn your Disapprobation of such Attempts, by dismissing those Ministers from the Public Service, and by the Choice of others whose Ability, Firmness and disinterested Conduct, have gained the Confidence and Affection of your Majesty's Subjects in general.

We trust that your Majesty will continue to exert, with the same Fortitude, your Royal Prerogative in the Defence of our Liberties, by opposing every Innovation in our present admirable Constitution. And we cannot doubt but your Majesty will receive the zealous Support of every good and loyal Subject, against the Machinations of those Persons, who make no Scruple to impede, to the utmost of their Ability, the established Course of Government, at a Time when our Negotiations with foreign Powers, our domestic Arrangements, and above all the alarming State of our National Finances, call aloud for the united Exertions of every Branch of the Legislature.

That your Majesty may very long continue to reign over a free and loyal People, is the Object of our most fervent Wishes.

Given under our Common Seal, the Fourteenth Day of February, in the Twenty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

[Price Three-Pence Halfpenny.]

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, has been presented to the King by the Honourable William Ward, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE, your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Worcester, (in Council assembled) beg Leave with all Humility to approach your Royal Throne, to express our sincere and inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family and Government, and to offer to you our most hearty and unfeigned Thanks for your Majesty's truly paternal Affection for your People, particularly manifested by the Dismission from your Majesty's Councils of those Ministers, who, by their recent Conduct, menaced Destruction not only to your Majesty's just and constitutional Prerogative, but also to the inestimable Rights and Privileges of your Majesty's Subjects, granted to them by the most solemn Charters.

We further intreat that we may be permitted to assure your Majesty of our determined Resolution to exert ourselves to the utmost, in the Support of the Prerogative, by the Constitution wisely reposed in the Crown, relying firmly that your Majesty in your Wisdom and Goodness will always exercise it to the Advancement of the Honor of your Crown, and to the Welfare, Prosperity, and Happiness of your free and grateful People

Given under our Common Seal, at the Guildhall of the said City, this Eleventh Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

The following Address of the Bailiffs, Magistrates, Sheriff, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the City of Litchfield, has been presented to the King by George Anson and Thomas Gilbert, Esqrs. Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiffs, Magistrates, Sheriff, Clergy, and other Gentlemen and Inhabitants of the City and Clofe of the Cathedral Church of Litchfield, whose Names are subscribed.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WITH Hearts warmed by Affection and Gratitude for your Majesty's invariable Attention to the Prosperity of your People, and to the Preservation of our most excellent Constitution, we cannot forbear expressing, in this critical Moment, our Admiration of the Wisdom of our Ancestors, in placing in the Crown the undoubted Right of appointing to all the Offices of executive Government; a Right which, as we conceive, ought not directly or indirectly to be infringed by either of the other Branches of the Legislature. And we trust that your Majesty, in your Wisdom will exercise this legal Prerogative, whenever you shall find it necessary for the Good of your Subjects, in which you will ever have our hearty Support.

That your Majesty may long reign over a united, free, and happy People, is the sincere Wish of your Majesty's loyal and affectionate Subjects.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Manufacturers, and Traders of the Town of Birmingham, has been presented to the King by Sir Robert Lawley, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Warwick, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bedchamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Merchants, Manufacturers, and Traders of the Town of Birmingham.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's faithful Subjects, alarmed at a late Attempt to wrest from the East India Company the Management of their own Commercial Concerns, and to vest them in a new-created unconstitutional executive Power, presume to approach your Royal Throne with Assurances of the sincerest Respect and Attachment; and humbly to thank your Majesty for your paternal Care in protecting the Constitution from the late dangerous and innovating Attack, by dismissing from your Councils the Advisers and Supporters of it, and for having made Choice of a Minister, who, as far as we can judge, has endeavoured to promote the true Interest of this Country.

We humbly conceive the Prerogatives of your Majesty's elevated Station were intended to operate for the Good of your People; and ardently beg your Majesty will accept our firm Assurances of a steady and uniform Support in every Constitutional Exigence.

The following Address of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Sir George Yonge, Bart. one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Portreeve, Bailiff, and Principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Honiton.

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Bailiff, and Principal Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Honiton, consider it incumbent on us, at the present alarming Moment, to express our Zeal and Attachment to your Majesty's Person and Government.

We have beheld, with infinite Concern, the Progress of a Measure, which equally tended to encroach on the Rights of your Majesty's Crown, to annihilate the Chartered Rights of the East-India Company, and to raise a new Power unknown to this free Government, and highly inimical to its Safety.

As this dangerous Measure was warmly supported by your Majesty's late Ministers, we heartily rejoice in their Dismissal, and humbly thank your Majesty for exerting your Prerogative in a Manner so salutary and constitutional, and for appointing an Administration, we trust, of Wisdom and Integrity, and deserving the Confidence and Support of the People.

Truly sensible of your Majesty's paternal Care and Affection for all your Subjects, we pray the Almighty that you may long reign over a free, and happy, and united Nation.

Given under the Common Seal of the Borough, the Twenty-eighth Day of January, 1784.

[Signed by 182 Persons.]

The Two following Addresses have been presented to the King by Charles Brett, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Dartmouth, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addresses His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Merchants, Traders, and other Principal Inhabitants within your Port of Dartmouth, in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Merchants, Traders, and Principal Inhabitants within your Port of Dartmouth, humbly approach your Majesty's Throne on the present Situation of Public Affairs, with the greatest Veneration, to express our inviolable Attachment to your Majesty's Royal Person, Family, and Government.

Deeply interested in the Welfare of your Majesty's Dominions, and anxious for the Happiness of our Fellow-Subjects, we sincerely rejoice in the late Dismissal from your Majesty's Councils, of Men whose Principles and Conduct appeared to be corrupt, and whose Councils were subversive of the Constitution, and the sacred Rights and Liberties of the Subject.

We most humbly thank your Majesty for exerting, in this Instance, your undoubted Right and just Prerogative, and for your Majesty's gracious Disposition to support the Rights and Liberties of your People; and we firmly rely on your Majesty's paternal Goodness, to continue in your Service such Men as appear to be most deserving of your Royal Confidence, and that of your Subjects in general.

We beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that, to the utmost of our Abilities, we will, at all Times, support your Majesty in the constitutional Exercise of every just Prerogative of the Crown, and particularly in such as your Majesty in your Wisdom may judge to be necessary for crushing that Faction which now obstructs the free Exercise of the Powers of Government.

That your Majesty (free from the Councils of corrupt and ambitious Men, who aimed at subverting the Constitution) may long and happily reign over a free and grateful People, is the Prayer of your Majesty's most faithful Subjects.

[Signed by 180 Persons.]

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of the Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness in the County of Devon.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses of your ancient Borough of Clifton Dartmouth Hardness, beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence humbly to express our Gratitude and Thankfulness for the late Instance of your Majesty's paternal Regard and Care for the sacred Rights and Liberties of your Subjects, in dismissing from your Service and Council Men whose Conduct and Principles manifested them to be regardless of both, and rendered them unworthy of your Majesty's Royal Confidence.

We cannot but observe with Indignation the Efforts of disappointed Faction to embarrass the Measures and degrade the Characters of those Men whom your Majesty hath thought fit to call into your Service; and we observe, with Concern, the open avowed Endeavours, as well as the secret Machinations, of that Faction to grasp at the Reins of Power, and force your Majesty's present Ministers from your Service, in open Violation of your Royal Prerogative, which properly vests in your Majesty the sole Power of nominating your own Servants.

We at the same Time admire the Firmness and determined Resolution of your Ministers to continue in the Service of your Majesty and of their Country, and not to be compelled to abandon or resign their Stations by any other than your Majesty's jeſty's Commands, nor to unite with Men of Principles inimical to the Honour of your Maſteſty and the Welfare of your Subjects, at this important Criſis.

Permit us, Sire, humbly to aſſure your Maſteſty of our unalterable Attachment to your Royal Perſon and Family, and of our determined Reſolution, to the utmoſt of our Power, to ſupport and maintain our happy Conſtitution, and your Maſteſty's Honour and Dignity in the full Exerciſe of every juſt Prerogative of your Crown, which the Neceſſity of the Times may require, or your Maſteſty's Wiſdom ſee prudent to exert.

May the unhappy Diviſions, which now diſtract your Maſteſty's Empire, be ſpeedily ended: May all your Subjects, in every Part of your Dominions, equally participate of the Bleſſings of returning Peace, and of your Maſteſty's mild and auſpicious Government: May your Maſteſty's Reign be yet long and happy over a free and grateful People; and may the Crown of theſe Dominions deſcend in your Maſteſty's illuſtrious Family to the laſteſt Poſterity, are our moſt earneſt Prayers.

Given at our Council-Chamber, under our Common Seal, this Thirteenth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and eighty-four.

The following Addreſs of the Gentlemen, Clothiers, and other Tradeſmen of the Town and Liberty of Trowbridge has been preſented to the King: Which Addreſs His Maſteſty was pleaſed to receive very graciously.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Maſteſty's loyal and dutiful Subjects, the Gentlemen, Clothiers, and other Tradeſmen of the Town and Liberty of Trowbridge, in the County of Wilts, impreſſed with the warmeſt Senſe of your Maſteſty's paternal Affection and Regard for the Welfare of your Subjects, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Preſence with the moſt ſincere Aſſurances of our cordial Affection and hearty Attachment to your Maſteſty's Perſon, Family, and Government.

Whilt we reflect how wiſely the Conſtitution we live under is calculated to answer all the good Purpoſes of Government, and to preſerve the Rights and Privileges of every Denomination of the Community, we think it our Duty, at the preſent Juncture, to teſtify our full Confidence in your Maſteſty's Adminiſtration; and that we are firmly perſuaded that, in the Exerciſe of your rightful Prerogative, your Maſteſty has conſtantly in View the real Happineſs and Welfare of your People.

We further aſſure your Maſteſty, that, from a Conſciouſneſs of the Rectitude of your Maſteſty's Intentions in all the Meaſures of your Government, we ſhall not be wanting to exert ourſelves in the Support thereof, and in the Maintenance of all the Conſtitutional Rights and Prerogatives you are inveſted with, by every Exertion and Means Providence has given us.

And as we conſider your Maſteſty's Reign the greateſt Bleſſing to your People, we pray the Almighty to prolong your Days, and to crown your Maſteſty and your illuſtrious Family with every public and domeſtic Happineſs.
