

the said Town, accompanied by Jacob Stone, Esq; Mayor, Thomas Dunant Funnett, Esq; Deputy Recorder, Edward Aegles, William Mercer, Esqrs. Senior Jurats, the Right Honourable Robert Peckham, Lord Mayor of the City of London, a Freeman and Inhabitant of the said Town, and Flint Stacey, Esq; Chamberlain, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Common Council, and Principal Inhabitants of your Majesty's Town and Parish of Maidstone, in the County of Kent, in the Court-Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

STRONGLY impressed with Sentiments of the sincerest Duty and Affection for your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government, and anxious for the Preservation of our free Constitution, we beg Permission to address your Majesty on the present critical Situation of Public Affairs.

It was with the utmost Concern that we beheld an Attempt made by your Majesty's late Ministers to deprive a great Commercial Company of their Chartered Rights, repeatedly confirmed by Acts of Parliament; and we humbly conceive had the Bill framed by them passed, it would have been a dangerous Precedent, and would have created a new executive Power, unknown to our Constitution.

We most humbly thank your Majesty for the just and legal Exertion of your Prerogative, in the Dismission of those Ministers, and for the Appointment of your Majesty's present Ministers, in whose Principles, Abilities and Integrity, we have the greatest Confidence; and we are well convinced, that whilst they pursue Measures conducive to the Honor of the Crown, and the true Interests of their Country, they may safely rely on the Support of a free and grateful People.

We farther beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that in every constitutional Exercise of your Prerogative, your Majesty will, at all Times, receive our most zealous Support.

Fully sensible of your Majesty's gracious Attention to the Welfare and Prosperity of all your Subjects, we most humbly pray that Almighty God may long preserve your Majesty to reign with Glory over a free happy and loyal People.

The following Address of the Electors of the Borough of Aylesbury and other Inhabitants, has been presented to the King by John Aubrey, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for Wallingford, and John Wilkes, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the County of Middlesex, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Electors of the Borough of Aylesbury and other Inhabitants, in their Town Hall assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Electors and other Inhabitants of your ancient Borough of Aylesbury, impressed with the sincerest Gratitude for the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government, being influenced by no other Consideration than the Prosperity of our Country, consider it as our Duty, at the present alarming Moment, to approach the Throne with Assurances of the most true and faithful Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government.

Beholding, with the greatest Admiration, your Majesty's Wisdom and Justice in dismissing those Men from your Councils, whose Conduct shewed so strong a Disposition to annihilate Chartered Rights, we return your Majesty our most unfeigned Thanks for the Exertion of your Majesty's Prerogative, in a Manner so highly beneficial to the Welfare of your People.

At the same Time we take the Liberty of expressing the Confidence we have in the Abilities and Integrity of the present Administration, as we sincerely believe they possess the Hearts and Affections of your People in general.

That your Majesty's Reign may be long and prosperous is the fervent Prayer of, most gracious Sovereign, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

February 23, 1784.

The following Address of the resident Freemen, and such Inhabitants of the Town of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, as are Freeholders and Housekeepers, has been presented to the King by Charles Brett, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Town of Dartmouth, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the resident Freemen, and such Inhabitants of the Town of Sandwich, in the County of Kent, as are Freeholders or Housekeepers.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our most zealous Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

We consider the free Use of the legal Powers of the Crown to be essential to the Preservation of our Constitution and Liberties, and therefore presume to assure your Majesty of our determined Resolution to support your Majesty at all Times in the constitutional Exercise of your Royal Prerogative.

We fervently pray that your Majesty may enjoy Health and Peace, in a long Reign over a happy, free, and united People.

Given under our Hands, the Twentieth Day of February, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four, and in Twenty-fourth Year of your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, has been presented to the King by Andrew Stuart, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the Shire of Lanark, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors of the County of Lanark.

WE, your Majesty's most faithful Subjects, the Noblemen, Gentlemen, and Heritors of the County of Lanark, think it our Duty, in the present alarming Situation of Publick Affairs, to express
