St. James's, March 24.

The following Address having been transmitted to the Right Honourable Lord Sydney, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the Home Department, has by his Lordship been presented to the King: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Presbyterian Ministers of the general Synod of Ulster, in your Majesty's Kingdom of Ireland, beg Leave to renew our former Assurances of a steady Attachment to your Royal Person and Family; the Establishment of which, on the Throne of these Kingdoms, we have ever regarded as the best Support, under God, of our excellent Constitution, and of all our Rights, civil and religious.

With peculiar Satisfaction we approach your Majesty, with Expressions of the most grateful Acknowledgement for the late Instance of your Royal Munificence, in granting us an Augmentation of the Royal Bounty.

This

This Mark of your Majesty's most gracious Protection we receive with most respectful Gratitude; and would fondly consider it an Earnest of such farther Extension of the Royal Bounty, as may enable us, with becoming Spirit and greater Usefulness, to execute our Office among that numerous, valuable and loyal Part of your Majesty's Subjects that are under our Pastoral Care.

With conscious Pride we can reflect, that the Presbyterians of the General Synod of Ulster have ever been, in all Revolutions, most loyal to the Crown. That no Principle unfavourable to Monarchy and our Constitution has ever been taught by any of our Communion, who all revere our Form of Government as a wise and happy Constitution which ought to be preserved inviolate in these Kingdoms, and who think themselves particularly blest by the Countenance and paternal Regard of your Majesty, and by the generous and uniform Protection they have received from the Princes of your Majesty's illustrious House.

In this Persuasion we shall always continue to offer up our Prayers to that Almighty Being who governs the Kingdoms of the Earth by His Providence, that He may direct your Majesty's Councils by His unerring Wisdom, encompass your Sacred Person with His Favour as with a Shield, and make your Government an universal Blessing to these Kingdoms.

Signed this 21st Day of February, 1784.

Will. Campbell,
Benj. M'Dowel, } Commissioners.

The following Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Lord Sheffield, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Gentlemen, Clergy, Freemen, and Inhabitants of the City of Coventry.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

IN the present alarming Situation of public Affairs, we beg Leave to approach your Throne, with the most ardent and unfeigned Affection and Attachment to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Family. We acknowledge, with the dearest Sense of Gratitude, the numerous Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's benign Government; and most humbly thank your Majesty for your singular Attention to the Welfare and Wishes of your People, in the Dismissal of the late Ministry. We have beheld, with an indignant Spirit, the violent and unconstitutional Attempts of a few interested and ambitious Men to force themselves into your Majesty's Service and Councils; whose Principles we humbly conceive to be obnoxious to your Majesty, and on whom your People dare not repose the least Confidence. We view, with the profoundest Admiration, the venerable Structure of our ancient Constitution, and fervently pray that it may be transmitted inviolate to our latest Posterity. We have the firmest Reliance on your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Goodness, that you will employ in your Service Men whose Abilities and unbiassed Integrity may best promote the Welfare and Happiness of this great Commercial Kingdom; and that your Majesty will not remove those against whom no specific Accusation can be proved. Sensible as we are that the Stability and Duration of our excellent Constitution must depend on the equal Proportion and legal Exercise of all its constituent Parts, we desire to assure your Majesty, that we will firmly support (as far as in us lies) your Majesty's just Rights and Prerogatives; and we earnestly implore the Supreme Disposer of Events, that your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, loyal, united and happy People.

The following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Coventry, has been presented to the King by Richard Hopkins, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for Borough of Thetford, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry.

WE, your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty, of the City of Coventry, beg Leave to approach your Throne at this alarming Crisis, to express our uninfluenced Assurances of Attachment and Fidelity to your Sacred Person and Family; Assurances resulting only from the Effusion of grateful Minds, truly sensible of the Blessings they enjoy under your Majesty's mild and auspicious Government.

We admire and contemplate, with the highest Satisfaction and Pleasure, your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Regard for your People, in the judicious Appointment of your present Ministers, by a legal and Constitutional Exertion of your Royal Prerogative. And we most sincerely thank your Majesty for the Confidence you are pleased to repose in your present First Lord of the Treasury, not doubting but that from his Integrity, Constitutional Principles, and exalted Abilities, the Dignity and Lustre of your Majesty's Crown, and the Happiness of your People, will be preserved inviolate.

We have deliberated on this Subject with Calmness, and pledge ourselves to act with Steadiness, Intrepidity, and Fervour, in the Support of your legal Prerogative, and the Honour and Safety of your Government.

Given under our Common Seal at the said City, the 16th Day of March, One thousand seven hundred and eighty-four.

The following Address of the Mayor and Citizens of the ancient City of Rochester, has been presented to the King by Mr. Alderman Byne, Mr. Alderman Nicholson, and Mr. J. White, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

SIRE!

TRULY sensible of the Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's mild Government, we the Mayor and Citizens of your ancient and loyal City of Rochester, in Guildhall assembled, beg Leave to address and thank your Majesty for nobly supporting your Honour and Dignity against the Encroachment of One Branch of the Legislature on the other, and to assure your Majesty of the Support of your faithful Citizens, to restore Energy and Stability to the Three Powers of Government founded on Constitutional Principles, against all improper Innovations.

That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, happy, and united People, and preserve the Sceptre of Great Britain inviolate and glorious, is our most sincere and ardent Wish.

[Signed by 215 Persons.]

The following Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkesbury, has been presented to the King by James Martin, Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament for the said Borough, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Inhabitants of the Borough of Tewkesbury, in the County of Gloucester.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, with all Humility present our Assurances of faithful and steady Attachment to your Majesty's Person, Family, and Government.

Our happy Constitution having placed in your Majesty's Power the sole Appointment of Ministers, we firmly rely on your Majesty's Wisdom and paternal Affection at all Times to raise to those exalted Stations, Men of distinguished Abilities, strict Integrity, and sound Constitutional Principles.

We cannot but express our most sincere and cordial Approbation of the Conduct and manly Resolution of those Persons whom your Majesty has at this Time thought most eligible to fill those important Offices.—And we trust, and sincerely hope, as they are so eminently distinguished for their private and public Virtues, having the Confidence of their Sovereign, and the good Opinion of your Majesty's loyal Subjects, they will be ever animated by an honest and laudable Zeal to serve their Country.

Repeating our strong Assurances that we will always steadfastly support the Constitutional Exercise of your Majesty's just Prerogatives, to the utmost of our Power, we most heartily wish you every Comfort and Blessing this World can afford; and earnestly pray that your Majesty may long gloriously reign over a free, happy, and united People.

[Signed by 377 Persons.]

The following Address of the Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Redruth, has been presented to the King by Sir Francis Bassett, one of the Representatives in Parliament for the Borough of Penryn, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders and Principal Inhabitants of the Town and Neighbourhood of Redruth, in the County of Cornwall, deeply impressed with Sorrow at the present lamentable State of Public Affairs, occasioned, as we conceive, by the Want of a firm and united Administration, beg Leave to express our most earnest Hope that your Majesty will, in Compliance with the Wishes of the House of Commons, call into your Councils such Men as may have the Confidence of Parliament, under whose Administration this Country may once more regain its Consequence, and we may again become a happy and united People.

[Signed by 168 Persons.]

The following Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh, has been presented to the King by the Right Honourable Henry Dundas, Representative in Parliament for the County of Edinburgh, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Unto the KING's most Excellent Majesty,

The Address of the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders, Justices of the Peace, Commissioners of Supply, and Heritors of the County of Edinburgh, conceive it to be our Duty now to exercise that Privilege, the Birthright of Britons, of approaching the Throne of their Sovereign, and of conveying to His Ear, the unbiassed, unsolicited, and honest Expression of their Sentiments and Wishes.

While we have beheld of late, with great Concern, the most open and resolute Efforts towards an Innovation of our admirable Constitution, both in the Attempt to create a new executive Power, and in the Challenge of the most clear and defined Prerogative of the Crown:—While we have seen these Attempts seconded by a determined and uniform Endeavour to impede every Measure of Government, we have marked, with a Heart-felt Satisfaction, the Exertion on the Part of your Majesty, of a calm and persevering Wisdom, in the steady Refusal of your Acquiescence in those Demands of disappointed Partizans, which would strip the Sovereign of His legal Powers, and destroy the Balance of that Constitution which is the Admiration and Envy of Europe.

We are fully convinced, Sire, that, since the glorious Era of the Revolution, the Sceptre of these Realms has never been wielded with more Moderation, nor the Rights of the People more inviolably preserved, than under your Majesty's Reign: And we trust that your Majesty, with the Aid of able Ministers of your free Choice and Appointment, will invariably pursue such Measures of Government, as will tend to the Maintenance of the just Rights of every Branch of the Constitution, and the Happiness of your Subjects.

Signed in our Name, and by our Appointment,
by the Præsides of the Meeting, at Edinburgh,
the 11th of March, 1784.

Arch. Hope.

The following Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Glasgow, has been presented to the King by John Craufurd, Esq; Representative in Parliament for the City of Glasgow, being introduced by the Lord of His Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Glasgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates, and Council of the City of Glasgow, in Common Council assembled, consider it as our Duty, at this important Crisis of Public Affairs, to express to your Majesty the warmest Assurances of our Zeal and Attachment to your Person, Family and Government.

Conscious of the Benefits we derive from our excellent Constitution, and from your Majesty's paternal Concern for the Welfare of your People, we approach the Throne with Sentiments of unfeigned Gratitude, Gratitude for the Endeavours your Majesty has been graciously pleased to employ for uniting in the Public Service those who appear to be best qualified to form an efficient, firm, extended Administration, entitled to the Confidence of your People, and calculated to put an End to the unhappy Divisions which have so fatally postponed and obstructed the Public Business, at a Period of such pressing Emergency.

Attached to no Party, our ardent Wish is for the Happiness and Prosperity of your Majesty's Reign, and for the Establishment of such a strong and stable Government as shall put an End to those unhappy Divisions which have filled the Minds of your faithful Subjects with the most serious Alarm; and while we sincerely lament that your Majesty's Endeavours have hitherto been ineffectual in promoting that Union which you have called for, and which the House of Commons have pointed out, we beg Leave humbly to express to your Majesty the just Sense we entertain of your Regard to the Welfare of your Kingdoms, in being graciously pleased to prevent still greater Inconvenience to the Public Affairs, by declining to vacate the essential Offices of executive Government, until such Union can be effected upon fair and equal Terms. And we beg Leave to assure your Majesty of our firmest Support in the just Exercise of every Prerogative intrusted to your Majesty by our excellent Constitution.

That your Majesty may long reign in the Hearts of a free, happy, and united People, is the fervent Prayer of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Provost, Magistrates and Council of the City of Glasgow.

Signed and sealed with the Common Seal of the City, in their Presence, and by their Appointment, at Glasgow, the 9th Day of March, 1784.

Pat. Colquhoun, Provost.

Admiralty-Office, March 18, 1784.

PURSUANT to an Act of Parliament passed in the 26th Year of His late Majesty's Reign, this is to give Notice to the Concerned, That Information has been sent to this Office, that on the 4th Instant, the Ship Françoise Josephim, whereof Jean Francois Dufour was Master, bound from Marseilles to Havre de Grace, in a thick Fog went on Shore in the Port of Penzance, and was totally lost; but that all the Men belonging to her were saved.

St. James's, March 16, 1784.

WHEREAS the King's Cellar, near to the Custom-house Warehouse, in the Port of Lyme, in the County of Dorset, was, on the 27th of December last, early in the Morning, broke open by some Person or Persons unknown, who feloniously took and carried away Seven Casks of Brandy and Geneva, which had been seized and deposited therein by Way of Security:

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in this Robbery, is hereby pleased to promise His most Gracious Pardon to any one of them who shall discover one or more of his Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a further Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of Thirty Pounds, over and above the Reward of Twenty Guineas already offered, to any Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, any one or more of the said Offenders, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs, upon Conviction.

William Stiles, Secretary.

St. James's, March 6, 1784.

WHEREAS on Monday the 9th of last Month, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven o'Clock at Night, as John Harrison, Head Supervisor of the Riding Officers in the Service of the Customs at Scarborough, was, in the Execution of his Duty, attending upon the Sands within the Harbour, in Company with other Officers of the Customs and Excise, to look after any Person or Persons who might be concerned in the landing or carrying away any Sort of Prohibited or Uncustomed Goods, he received a Ball discharged from a Gun or Pistol, which went through his Great Coat, and through that Part of his Under Coat, where his Pocket was, and hitting on the Right Hand Side against his Powder Flask (in his Coat Pocket) which is Brass covered with Leather, though it dented the Flask, was thereby repelled, but gave a great Shock to the said Harrison, who then heard the Report of a Gun or Pistol.

That on Mr. Harrison's receiving the Ball so discharged, he took out his Pistol, and, with a Dragoon who was in Company with him, immediately advanced to the Place from whence the Gun or Pistol was supposed to be fired, but could not find any Person there, or any Fire Arms.

His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in this atrocious Offence, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Offenders (except the Person who actually fired) who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

SYDNEY.

And, as a farther Encouragement, the Commissioners of His Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of FIFTY POUNDS to the Person or Persons who shall discover and apprehend, or cause to be discovered and apprehended, the Person who actually fired on the Officer as aforesaid, to be paid by the Receiver-General of His Majesty's Customs upon Conviction.

William Stiles, Secretary.

Office of American Claims, Lincoln's-inn-fields, March 15, 1784.

THE Commissioners for enquiring into the Losses and Services of American Loyalists give Notice, for the Information of all whom it may concern, That they are prohibited, by the Act of Parliament, from receiving any Claims after the 25th Day of this Month; such Persons therefore as intend to avail themselves of the Benefit of the Act must lodge their Memorials at this Office on or before that Day.

By Order of the Commissioners,
John Forster, Secretary.

Admiralty-Office, March 8, 1784.
